

Contents

1	Limitation of Sovereignty by European Integration: The German Experience in a Comparative View	1
	Rainer Arnold
2	European Integration and Limitation of the Power of Constitutional Reform	15
	Francisco Balaguer Callejón
3	National and Constitutional Identity as a Legal and Political Instrument	27
	Luca Mezzetti
4	National Identity and Market Freedoms After the Treaty of Lisbon	51
	Sinisa Rodin
5	The European Union in the Constitutional Framework of Member States: The Italian Case	87
	Diana-Urania Galetta
6	Limitation of Sovereignty by the European Integration – The Polish Approach	99
	Bogusław Banaszak
7	The Transfer of Sovereignty in the Case Law of the Hungarian Constitutional Court	109
	Péter Kovács
8	An ‘Entirely-Specific’ Situation or a Routine Limitation of the National Autonomy? Slovak pensions XVII of the Czech Constitutional Court	125
	Jiří Zemánek

- 9 The Infra-Constitutionality of European Law in Romania
and the Challenges of the Romanian Constitutional Culture 141
Manuel Guțan
- 10 The Europeanization of Albanian Constitutional Law 165
Arta Vorpsi
- 11 The Supranational Character of the European Union
Associations with Third Countries 183
Viktor Muraviov