

Contents

Table of Cases	xi
Table of Legislation	xvii
1. Introduction	1
2. Defending Dialogue	7
I. Legislative Supremacy and its Critics	8
II. Judicial Supremacy and its Critics	16
III. Dialogic Judicial Review and its Critics	22
IV. Conclusion	27
3. Overview of the Constitutional Systems	31
I. Hong Kong	31
II. Malaysia	40
III. Singapore	48
4. Judicial Crises	57
I. Judicial Crisis in Hong Kong	58
II. Judicial Crisis in Malaysia	66
III. Judicial Crisis in Singapore	73
IV. Conclusion	77
5. Dialogue and Sub-Constitutional Doctrines	79
I. Sub-Constitutionalism and its Discontents	80
II. Sub-Constitutional Doctrines in Common Law Asia	86
III. Conclusion	103
6. Freedom of Expression	107
I. Defamation	110
II. Contempt by Scandalizing the Judiciary	122
III. Regulatory Restrictions on Public Assemblies	128
IV. Conclusion	135
7. Freedom of Religion	139
I. Overview of the Three Models of Religious Liberty	141
II. Evaluating the Three Models	144

III. Dialogic Tools to Implementing the Balancing Model of Religious Freedom	152
IV. Conclusion	158
8. Right to Equality	161
I. Overview of the Four Models of Equality	163
II. Evaluating the Four Models	169
III. Justifying Equality Infringements	180
IV. Conclusion	192
9. Right to Due Process	195
I. Overview of the Four Models of Due Process	197
II. Evaluating the Four Models	204
III. Dialogic Tools to Implementing Substantive Due Process	213
IV. Conclusion	220
10. Conclusion	223
Bibliography	229
Index	241