

Contents

List of Tables	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Foreword by Bernard Grofman	xi
List of Contributors	xxi
Part 1 Introduction
1 The Strategy and History of Electoral System Choice Josep M. Colomer	3
Part 2 The Americas
2 The Americas: General Overview Josep M. Colomer	81
3 Argentina: Compromising on a Qualified Plurality System Gabriel L. Negretto	110
4 Brazil: Democratizing with Majority Runoff Jairo M. Nicolau	121
5 Costa Rica: Modifying Majoritarianism with 40 per cent Threshold Fabrice Lehoucq	133
6 Mexico: Designing Electoral Rules by a Dominant Party Alberto Díaz-Cayeros and Beatriz Magaloni	145
7 The United States: the Past – Moving from Diversity to Uniform Single-Member Districts Erik J. Engstrom	155
8 The United States: the Future – Reconsidering Single-Member Districts and the Electoral College Richard L. Engstrom	164
Part 3 Western Europe
9 Western Europe: General Overview Josep M. Colomer	179

- 10 France: Reform-mongering Between Majority Runoff and Proportionality
Gerard Alexander 209
- 11 Germany: Partisan Engineering of Personalized Proportional Representation
Marcus Kreuzer 222
- 12 Italy: Lofty Ambitions and Unintended Consequences
Diego Gambetta and Steven Warner 237
- 13 Spain: from Civil War to Proportional Representation
Josep M. Colomer 253
- 14 Sweden: Introducing Proportional Representation from Above
Leif Lewin 265
- 15 Switzerland: Introducing Proportional Representation from Below
Georg Lutz 279
- 16 The United Kingdom: Reforming the Westminster Model
Patrick Dunleavy and Helen Margetts 294

Part 4 Eastern Europe

- 17 Eastern Europe: General Overview
Carlos Flores Juberías 309
- 18 The Baltics: Independence with Divergent Electoral Systems
Evald Mikkel and Vello Pettai 332
- 19 The Czech Republic: Entrenching Proportional Representation
Petr Kopecký 347
- 20 Hungary: Compromising Midway on a Mixed System
John W. Schiemann 359
- 21 Poland: Learning to Manipulate Electoral Rules
Marek M. Kaminski and Monika A. Nalepa 369
- 22 Russia: Compromising a Long-Lasting Transitional Formula
Olga V. Shvetsova 382

Part 5 Africa

- 23 Africa: Dictatorial and Democratic Electoral Systems since 1946
Matt Golder and Leonard Wantchekon 401
- 24 Africa: Electoral Systems in Emerging Democracies
Shaheen Mozaffar 419

25	South Africa: Proportional Representation in the Puzzle to Stabilize Democracy Andrew Reynolds	440
Part 6 Asia and the Pacific
26	Asia and the Pacific: General Overview Allen Hicken	453
27	Australia: Replacing Plurality Rule with Majority-Preferential Voting Marian Sawer	475
28	India: Majoritarian Democracy from Above Subrata K. Mitra	487
29	Indonesia: Transition and Change but Electoral System Continuity Andrew Ellis	497
30	Japan: Manipulating Multi-Member Districts – from SNTV to a Mixed System Junichiro Wada	512
31	New Zealand: Reform by (Nearly) Immaculate Design Jack H. Nagel	530
	Appendix: Notes and Sources for Summary Tables	544
	Glossary and Index	547