

CONTENTS

Editors' Note	xvi
Note for the 1984 Edition	xvii
Chronology	xx

Introductory Essays

PETER PARET	The Genesis of On War	3
MICHAEL HOWARD	The Influence of Clausewitz	29
BERNARD BRODIE	The Continuing Relevance of On War	50

On War

Author's Preface	69
Author's Comment	71
MARIE VON CLAUSEWITZ	Preface	73
Two Notes by the Author	77

BOOK ONE

On the Nature of War

1	What is War?	83
2	Purpose and Means in War	102
3	On Military Genius	115
4	On Danger in War	132
5	On Physical Effort in War	134
6	Intelligence in War	136

CONTENTS

7	Friction in War	138
8	Concluding Observations on Book One	141

BOOK TWO

On the Theory of War

1	Classifications of the Art of War	145
2	On the Theory of War	153
3	Art of War or Science of War	172
4	Method and Routine	175
5	Critical Analysis	181
6	On Historical Examples	199

BOOK THREE

On Strategy in General

1	Strategy	207
2	Elements of Strategy	215
3	Moral Factors	216
4	The Principal Moral Elements	218
5	Military Virtues of the Army	219
6	Boldness	223
7	Perseverance	227
8	Superiority of Numbers	228
9	Surprise	233
10	Cunning	238
11	Concentration of Forces in Space	240
12	Unification of Forces in Time	241
13	The Strategic Reserve	247

CONTENTS

14	Economy of Force	250
15	The Geometrical Factor	251
16	The Suspension of Action in War	253
17	The Character of Contemporary Warfare	258
18	Tension and Rest	260

BOOK FOUR

The Engagement

1	Introduction	265
2	The Nature of Battle Today	266
3	The Engagement in General	268
4	The Engagement in General—Continued	272
5	The Significance of the Engagement	279
6	Duration of the Engagement	282
7	Decision of the Engagement	284
8	Mutual Agreement to Fight	291
9	The Battle: Its Decision	294
10	The Battle—Continued: The Effects of Victory	300
11	The Battle—Continued: The Use of the Battle	306
12	Strategic Means of Exploiting Victory	312
13	Retreat after a Lost Battle	322
14	Night Operations	325

BOOK FIVE

Military Forces

1	General Survey	331
2	The Army, the Theater of Operations, the Campaign	332

CONTENTS

3	Relative Strength	335
4	Relationship between the Branches of the Service	338
5	The Army's Order of Battle	347
6	General Disposition of the Army	353
7	Advance Guard and Outposts	359
8	Operational Use of Advanced Corps	367
9	Camps	372
10	Marches	375
11	Marches—Continued	382
12	Marches—Concluded	385
13	Billets	388
14	Maintenance and Supply	394
15	Base of Operations	408
16	Lines of Communication	412
17	Terrain	416
18	The Command of Heights	420

BOOK SIX

Defense

1	Attack and Defense	427
2	The Relationship between Attack and Defense in Tactics	431
3	The Relationship between Attack and Defense in Strategy	434
4	Convergence of Attack and Divergence of Defense	439
5	The Character of Strategic Defense	443
6	Scope of the Means of Defense	445

CONTENTS

7	Interaction between Attack and Defense	451
8	Types of Resistance	453
9	The Defensive Battle	467
10	Fortresses	471
11	Fortresses—Continued	480
12	Defensive Positions	485
13	Fortified Positions and Entrenched Camps	491
14	Flank Positions	498
15	Defensive Mountain Warfare	501
16	Defensive Mountain Warfare—Continued	509
17	Defensive Mountain Warfare—Concluded	517
18	Defense of Rivers and Streams	522
19	Defense of Rivers and Streams—Continued	537
20	A. Defense of Swamps	539
	B. Inundations	541
21	Defense of Forests	545
22	The Cordon	547
23	The Key to the Country	551
24	Operations on a Flank	555
25	Retreat to the Interior of the Country	566
26	The People in Arms	578
27	Defense of a Theater of Operations	585
28	Defense of a Theater of Operations—Continued	589
29	Defense of a Theater of Operations—Continued: Phased Resistance	603
30	Defense of a Theater of Operations—Concluded: Where a Decision Is Not the Objective	606

CONTENTS

BOOK SEVEN The Attack

1	Attack in Relation to Defense	633
2	The Nature of Strategic Attack	634
3	The Object of Strategic Attack	637
4	The Diminishing Force of the Attack	638
5	The Culminating Point of the Attack	639
6	Destruction of the Enemy's Forces	640
7	The Offensive Battle	641
8	River Crossings	643
9	Attack on Defensive Positions	646
10	Attack on Entrenched Camps	647
11	Attack on a Mountainous Area	649
12	Attack on Cordons	652
13	Maneuver	653
14	Attacks on Swamps, Flooded Areas, and Forests	656
15	Attack on a Theater of War: Seeking a Decision	658
16	Attack on a Theater of War: Not Seeking a Decision	662
17	Attack on Fortresses	666
18	Attack on Convoys	671
19	Attack on an Enemy Army in Billets	674
20	Diversions	680
21	Invasion	683
22	The Culminating Point of Victory	684

CONTENTS

BOOK EIGHT

War Plans

1	Introduction	697
2	Absolute War and Real War	700
3	A. Interdependence of the Elements of War	704
	B. Scale of the Military Objective and of the Effort To Be Made	707
4	Closer Definition of the Military Objective: The Defeat of the Enemy	719
5	Closer Definition of the Military Objective—Continued: Limited Aims	726
6	A. The Effect of the Political Aim on the Military Objective	728
	B. War Is an Instrument of Policy	731
7	The Limited Aim: Offensive War	738
8	The Limited Aim: Defensive War	741
9	The Plan of a War designed to Lead to the Total Defeat of the Enemy	746

A Commentary

BERNARD BRODIE	A Guide to the Reading of On War	775
ROSALIE WEST	Index	857