Contents

List of contributors vii
Preface and acknowledgements viii
European family law – Introduction to the book set x
Jens M. Scherpe
Table of cases xiv
Table of legislation xxii

Introduction to European family law volume II: The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for domestic family law 1
Jens M. Scherpe

1 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in the Benelux countries 5
Frederik Swennen
2 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in England and Wales 22
Gillian Douglas
3 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in France 39
Laurence Francoz Terminal
4 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Germany 65
Dieter Martiny
5 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Greece 86
Eleni Zervogianni
6 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Hungary 108
Orsolya Szeibert
7 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Ireland 127
Brian Sloan

8 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Italy 160
Maria Giovanna Cubeddu Wiedemann
9 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in the Nordic countries 186
Tone Sverdrup
10 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Russia 212
Olga Khazova
11 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Scotland 235
Kenneth McK. Norrie
12 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in the Slovak Republic 252
Gabriela Kubíčková
13 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Slovenia 272
Barbara Novak
14 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Spain and Catalonia 289
Albert Lamarca Marquès
15 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Switzerland 309
Ingeborg Schwenzer and Tomie Keller
16 The changing concept of 'family' and challenges for family law in Turkey 335
Esin Örücü

Index 363