

Contents

FOREWORD , by Edward Schillebeeckx	ix
PREFACE	xi
1. WHAT IS LOCAL THEOLOGY?	1
A Shift in Perspective	1
The Varieties of Local Theology	6
Translation Models	6
Adaptation Models	9
Contextual Models	12
Who Is a Local Theologian?	16
The Community as Theologian	16
The Role of the Professional Theologian	18
Prophets and Poets in Local Theology	18
Outsiders and Insiders in Local Theology	19
Toward Definition of Local Theology	20
2. MAPPING A LOCAL THEOLOGY	22
Spirit and Gospel: The Community's Context	24
The Difficulties of the Beginning Point	25
Previous Local Theologies	26
The Opening of Culture	28
Culture Texts: The Emergence of Themes	29
The Opening of Church Tradition	31
Tradition as a Series of Local Theologies	32
The Encounter of Church Tradition and Local Themes	33
The Impact of the Tradition on Local Theology	34
The Impact of Local Theology on Tradition	34
The Impact of Local Theology on the Cultural Situation	35
Other Issues in Reading the Chart	36
The Audience of Local Theology	36
Local Theology in a Universal Church	37
Further Thinking in Ecclesiology	38

3. THE STUDY OF CULTURE	39
Listening to a Culture	39
Tools for Listening to Culture	42
Cultural Analysis for Theology: Some General Characteristics	42
Functionalist Approaches to Culture	45
Ecological and Materialist Approaches to Culture	47
Structuralist Approaches to Culture	48
The Semiotic Study of Culture	49
Toward a Semiotic Analysis of Culture	56
Description and Perspective in Culture	57
The Semiotic Description of Culture Texts	61
Identity in Semiotic Description	63
Social Change in Semiotic Description	70
Cultural Analysis and Local Theology	73
4. THEOLOGY AND ITS CONTEXT: CHURCH TRADITION AS LOCAL THEOLOGIES	 75
Theology and Its Context	75
Theology and the Sociology of Knowledge	78
A Sociology of Theology	80
Theology as Variations on a Sacred Text	80
Theology as Wisdom	85
Theology as Sure Knowledge	87
Theology as Praxis	91
The Tradition as a Series of Local Theologies	93
5. TRADITION AND CHRISTIAN IDENTITY	95
Local Theology Encounters Christian Tradition: Seven Problems	95
Christian Tradition Encounters Local Theology: Four Problems	101
The Functioning of Tradition in Human Communities	104
Tradition's Contribution to Human Community	105
Essential Aspects of Tradition	107
Perspectives on Tradition	109
Toward a Theory of Tradition	113
Criteria for Christian Identity	117
The Cohesiveness of Christian Performance	118
The Worshiping Context and Christian Performance	118
The Praxis of the Community and Christian Performance	119
The Judgment of Other Churches and Christian Performance	119
The Challenge to Other Churches and Christian Performance	120

6. POPULAR RELIGION AND OFFICIAL RELIGION	122
What Is Popular Religion?	124
Varieties and Characteristics of Popular Religion	127
Interpreting Popular Religion	131
Negative Approaches	131
Positive Approaches	133
The Seven Approaches in Summary	139
Areas of Need and Popular Religion	139
Pastoral Approaches to Popular Religion	141
Popular Religion and Local Theologies	142
 7. SYNCRETISM AND DUAL RELIGIOUS SYSTEMS	 144
The Problems of Syncretism and Dual Religious Systems	144
The Varieties of Syncretism and Dual Religious Systems	146
Three Kinds of Syncretism	146
Three Kinds of Dual Systems	148
Some Issues and Questions	149
A Model for Understanding Syncretism	151
A Model for Understanding Dual Religious Systems	155
Dealing with Syncretism and Dual Religious Systems	157
 NOTES	 159
 INDEX	 171