

PART I. THE MAJOR THEORISTS

1.1. Introductory Note

CONTENTS

PART 1. THE MAJOR THEORISTS

1.1. Introductory Note	7
1.2. Social Formations as Modes of Production (Marx)	8
1.3. Civilisations and Universal Churches (Toynbee)	11
1.4. The Path of Historical Sociology (Weber)	14
1.5. Configurations of Growth and Decline (Kroeber)	17
1.6. Systems and Congeries (Sorokin)	20
1.7. Evolutionary Universals (Parsons - Bellah - Eisenstadt)	23
1.8. Global Societies in a Twofold View (Gurvitch etc.)	27
1.9. Societies as Organised Power Networks (Mann)	32

PART 2. THE MAIN CONCEPTS OF

A GLOBAL APPREHENSION

2.1. General Orientation	34
2.2. The Concept of Civilisation	38
2.3. Reality and Awareness of Civilisation	42
2.4. Configurations of Structural Elements	48
2.5. Structures and Ideas	51
2.6. Technological and Environmental Factors	55