

Contents

List of contributors	5
Foreword	11

PART I TAXATION OF INCOME – SELECTED ISSUES

Beata Kucia-Guściora Tax Residence in the Polish personal income tax system – major problem areas	17
Marcin Burzec Inflation and Personal Income Tax in Poland	31
Michalina Duda-Hyz Tax free amount in the Polish Income Tax	45
Judit Varga Family tax benefit in the system of the Hungarian Personal Income Tax and its constitutional foundations	61
Adam Zdunek Issues concerning harmonization of Corporate Income Tax in the European Union	73

PART II INDIRECT TAXATION – SELECTED ISSUES

Sonja Cindori, Maja Bubalo Value Added Tax on the supplies of immovable property – challenges of the harmonization with the Acquis Communautaire	85
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Cosmin Flavius Costaş Of VAT and other demons. The Romaniane experience	99
Monika Münnich Problems in interpreting tax exemption of medical services as regulated by the EU VAT Directive and the Polish VAT Act	113

PART III

TAX PROCEDURE – SELECTED ISSUES

Dominik Mączyński General Anti-Abuse Rule under Polish tax law	129
Artur Mudrecki Models of judicial protection of taxpayers' rights in Poland and in the Czech Republic	141
Adam Nita, Andrzej Światłowski Legal assumptions and burden of proof in Polish tax law. To what extent the is taxpayer obliged to collaborate with tax authorities during tax assessment?	151
Mariusz Popławski A new concept of limitation in the Polish tax law	161
Lubica Masárová, Michal Maslen Obligatory electronic communication with tax authorities	175
Zdenka Papoušková Issues of process in budgetary, tax and fee law in the Czech Republic	187
Katarzyna Wojewoda-Buraczyńska The influence of Poland's accession to the European Union on the rules of granting tax payment reliefs to entrepreneurs – selected issues	193
Piotr Buława Access to case file in tax proceedings in Poland and the Czech Republic	201

PART IV

TAX AUTHORITIES – SELECTED ISSUES

Zbigniew Ofiarski Tax administration in Poland – some refl ections in the context of the Bill on Tax Administration	217
Paweł Smoleń The reform of the Self-Government Boards of Appeal in Poland	233
Maciej P. Gapski The conception of the appeal authority in tax proceedings	247
Piotr Pomorski Public interest as a prerequisite for the mayor's financial activity in Poland	263

PART V
OTHER SELECTED ISSUES FOCUSED ON TAXATION
IN CENTRAL EUROPE AND GEORGIA

Anna Jurkowska-Zeidler
The use of tax instruments for financial market regulation.
The European integration context	279
Paulius Čerka, Jūratė Mažeikaitė
Immunity of state owned entities from fiscal jurisdiction	295
Petra Jánošíková
European Union and its impact on the tax system in the Czech Republic ..	309
Ewa Kowalewska, Paweł Mańczyk
Cadastral Tax in the European Union on the example of France	323
Kristýna Řezníčková
The issue of tax revenues of local councils	333
Nino Patariaia
Georgian tax system	343
Bibliography	359