

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	NOS.
I. ALL RELIGION HAS RELATION TO LIFE, AND THE LIFE OF RELIGION IS TO DO GOOD	1-8
II. NO ONE CAN DO GOOD, WHICH IS GOOD, FROM HIMSELF	9-17
III. SO FAR AS A MAN SHUNS EVILS AS SINS, SO FAR HE DOES WHAT IS GOOD NOT FROM HIMSELF, BUT FROM THE LORD	18-31
1. If a man wills and does what is good before he shuns evils as sins, the good things that he wills and does are not good	24
2. If a man thinks and speaks pious things, and does not shun evils as sins, the pious things [which he thinks and speaks] are not pious	25, 26
3. If a man has much knowledge and much wisdom, and does not shun evils as sins, he is nevertheless not wise	27
IV. SO FAR AS ANY ONE SHUNS EVILS AS SINS, SO FAR HE LOVES TRUTHS	32-41
V. SO FAR AS ANY ONE SHUNS EVILS AS SINS, SO FAR HE HAS FAITH, AND IS SPIRITUAL	42-52
VI. THE DECALOGUE TEACHES WHAT EVILS ARE SINS	53-61
VII. ALL KINDS OF MURDER, ADULTERY, THEFT, AND FALSE WITNESS, WITH THEIR LUST, ARE EVILS WHICH OUGHT TO BE SHUNNED AS SINS ..	62-66
VIII. SO FAR AS ANY ONE SHUNS ALL KINDS OF MURDER AS SINS, SO FAR HE HAS LOVE TOWARDS THE NEIGHBOUR	67-73