

Table of contents

Foreword	7
----------------	---

CHAPTER I

CONCEPT OF SECURITY AND ITS TYPES

Concept of Security and its Types (Agnieszka Bień-Kacała, Maciej Serowaniec)	15
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER II

EUROPEAN ACQUIS IN FIELD OF SECURITY

European Acquis in Field of Security (Agnieszka Bień-Kacała) ..	25
--------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER III

CATEGORY OF SECURITY IN LIGHT OF POLISH CONSTITUTION

Category of security in light of Polish Constitution (Agnieszka Bień-Kacała)	39
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER IV

CZECH CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND INTERPRETATIONS OF SECURITY

1. Concept of security of Czech Republic (Věra Jirásková, Jiří Jirásek)	65
2. Security and Safety Issues in Case Law of Czech Constitutional Court (Karel Klíma)	107

CHAPTER V

CONCEPT OF SECURITY OF SLOVAK REPUBLIC

1. State Security (Marián Giba)	123
2. Security of Citizens (Lubor Cibulka)	137
3. Ecological Security (Marek Domin)	143
4. Security and Other Values Protected by Constitution (Milan Hodás)	147
5. Constitutional Mechanisms for Eliminating Security Risks (Marek Domin)	155
6. Security concept in jurisprudence of Slovak Constitutional Court (Lubor Cibulka)	167

CHAPTER VI

HUNGARIAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND INTERPRETATIONS OF SECURITY

Hungarian constitutional law and interpretations of security (Tímea Drinóczi, Lóránt Csink, István Sabjanics)	177
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER VII

COMPARATIVE CONCLUSIONS

Comparative conclusions (Agnieszka Bień-Kacala)	203
Contributors	221