

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Table of Cases	xiii
Introduction	1
I. The Limits of Interpretation of Human Rights Treaties	1
II. Constitutional and International Tribunals: Legitimacy and Methods	8
III. The Court's Interpretive Repertoire	14
IV. An Elastic Notion of 'Family'	26
V. Towards a Taxonomy of Family Rights	30
VI. 'Evolutive' or Ultra Vires?	36
1. The Formalisation and Dissolution of Intimate Relationships	39
I. Introductory Remarks	39
II. Civil Effects of Religious Celebration and Guarantees against Child Marriages	40
III. Objectionable Unions? Prohibited Relations and Sham Marriages	51
IV. Polygamous Marriage between Cultural Relativism and Public Order	55
V. Controversies Surrounding Prisoners' Right to Marry	62
VI. A Right to Divorce and Re-partnering?	68
VII. Concluding Remarks	77
2. Protection of De Facto Families: Cohabitation and Illegitimate Filiation	80
I. Introductory Remarks	80
II. The Progressive Recognition of De Facto Couples as Protected Family Units	83
III. Economic Advantages: Distinctions between Cohabitants and Spouses	89
IV. The Different Treatment of Unmarried Fathers	97
A. Recognition of Paternal Affiliation	99
B. The Exercise of Parental Authority	110
V. Protection of Illegitimate Children: From Legal Affiliation to Inheritance Rights	115
VI. Concluding Remarks	122

3.	The Right (Not) to Become a Parent: From Assisted Reproduction to Adoptive Filiation	125
	I. Introductory Remarks	125
	II. Procreative Rights: Negative and Positive Obligations for States.....	128
	III. Access to Assisted Reproduction Services and Non-genetic Attribution of Parenthood.....	133
	IV. Adoption as Social Parenthood.....	149
	A. The Alleged Right to Adopt.....	149
	B. Protection of Adoption-Based Families.....	154
	C. Recognition of Foreign Adoptions.....	158
	V. The Right of Prisoners to Found a Family: A Non-exercisable Right?	160
	VI. Unwanted Parenthood and Conflicts of Rights	164
	A. The Potential Father's Right to Veto a Termination of Pregnancy.....	164
	B. The Expectant Mother's Reproductive Freedom.....	166
	VII. The Right to Parental Leave Allowance	176
	VIII. Concluding Remarks	179
4.	The Impact of Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity on Family Rights	187
	I. Introductory Remarks	187
	II. Same-Sex Families: Coupledom and Parenting	188
	A. Autonomy of Private Life and the Decriminalisation of Homosexual Relationships.....	188
	B. Homosexuality and Claims to Family Reunification	194
	C. Aspirations to Same-Sex Marriage or Equivalent Recognition.....	198
	D. Non-discriminatory Access to Social Benefits.....	209
	E. Equal Treatment of Homosexual Parents vis-a-vis Biological Children	214
	F. Access to Adoption and Medically Assisted Procreation.....	217
	III. Transsexualism and Family Rights.....	223
	A. Recognition of the Acquired Gender and the Right to Marry Accordingly.....	223
	B. Parental Rights of Transsexuals.....	233
	IV. Concluding Remarks	236
5.	Conflicts of Rights between Family Members.....	253
	I. Introductory Remarks	253
	II. The Principle of Equality of Spouses.....	254
	A. The Choice of Surnames for Married Parties and Their Children.....	255

B.	Differences Regarding the Institution of Paternity Proceedings	261
III.	Private Disputes over Children.....	266
A.	Custody and Visitation.....	266
B.	International Child Abduction	279
IV.	The Child's Right to Know Their Genetic Origins.....	289
V.	Concluding Remarks	296
6.	Family Autonomy, Public Interest and Legitimate State Intervention	300
I.	Introductory Remarks	300
II.	Pre-eminence of Parental Choices with Respect to the Child's Upbringing.....	303
III.	Hasty or Belated Removal of Children from Abusive Homes.....	314
IV.	Rights of the Natural Parents with Regard to Adoption Proceedings	323
V.	The Tension between the Right to Contact and Deprivation of Liberty.....	328
VI.	Concluding Remarks	333
7.	Cross-border Families, Human Rights and Immigration Barriers	336
I.	An International Right to Family Reunification and/or Preservation of Family Unity?.....	336
II.	The Option to Continue Family Life Elsewhere: The 'Insurmountable Obstacles' Test	343
III.	Irrelevance of Family Life Built on an Irregular or Temporary Immigration Status	353
IV.	Balancing Family Rights against the Protection of the Community	357
V.	The Uncertain Place of Children's Best Interests in Immigration Cases.....	368
VI.	The Imbalance between the Approach to Admission and Removal Cases.....	379
VII.	Concluding Remarks	386
	Conclusions.....	394
	Index	409