

Proceedings

- M. Bečvářova: Czech Mathematicians and Their Role in the Development of National Mathematics in the Balkans
- B. Beham: "The crisis of intuition" - Austrian-Hungarian Contributions in the Quest of Defining the Mathematical Term "Dimension" from the 1850's to the 1920's
- Ch. Binder: The Appointment Policy in the Austrian-Hungarian Empire
- S. Domoradzki: Mathematics in Lwow Before the Lwow Mathematical School
- H. Gropp: Mathematics in Bosnia - Herzegovina
- M. Chocholová: Wilhelm Matzka and His Position in the Austro-Hungarian Mathematics
- M. T. Morovics: The Mathematics and Its Professors at the Mining and Forestry Academy in Schemnitz (Banská Štiavnica)
- K. Munkacsy: The Reception of Bolyai's Geometry in the Austro-Hungarian Empire
- A. M. Nikolić: Mathematical Education in the Province of Vojvodina within the Habsburg Monarchy
- M. Pémová, Z. Sklenáriková: Karel Pelz an Outstanding Geometer of the 19th Century
- Ch. Phili: Greek Mathematical Publications in Vienna in the 18th-19th Centuries
- M. Razpet: Franc Hočevar and His Scientific Work
- N. Razpet: Franc Hočevar - Textbook Author