
Contents

List of illustrations	ix
Foreword by Éric Fassin	x
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction: Inside segregation	1
Segregated and stigmatized "Gypsy urban areas" (GUAs)	2
Segregation as a dynamic process	5
Race, colonialism and (European) cities	7
Race, neoliberalism and urban governance	13
Structure of the research and the book	15
Note on names	18
1 Nodes	20
Colony: segregation rationales	22
Metropole: from sedentarization to segregation	29
Conclusion: toward an ethnography of nodes	43
2 Displacement	48
Displacing the hygiene threat	49
The making of an urban condom	51
Racist order, racial icons	56
Conclusion: evicted from diversity	63
3 Omission	68
Governing an "ethnic bomb"	70
"Racism is not the problem"	75
Conclusion: racism and neoliberal doxa	81