
Contents

Introduction: Why Hear From Nonvoters?	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
1. The Conventional Wisdom About Nonvoters	1
Civic Embarrassment	4
Disgrace in the Eyes of Other Countries	7
A Vital Democracy?	9
Changing Symbolism of Voting	12
2. Profiling America's Nonvoters—Their Voices	15
Reflecting the Stereotype	17
Detachment and Cynicism Belie Good Voting Intentions	20
Avoiding Political Parties	22
The Issues: God, Motherhood, and the Economy	23
Often Involved and Informed, But Not Necessarily in Politics	25
Doers	27
Unplugged	30
Irritables	33
Don't Knows	35
Alienateds	38
Words Versus Deeds	40
3. Doers	43
Dr. Robert Wolkow: Advocate Against Lazy Voting	45
Nancy Smith: No Time Left for Voting	50
Jason Caldwell: A Step Away From Voting	56
Claudine D'Orazio: Dedicated to the Hospitality Industry	62

Ryan Gerali: Put It Off and Missed His First Election	68
Paul Rains: A Member of the Silent Majority, Content to Follow	73
Gene Tencza: The Pursuit of Ordinary Happiness	78
Sue Jablonsky: Gone Fishing	83
4. Unpluggeds	89
Jack Daniels: Missing in Action Since Kennedy	91
Barbara Beth: A Hard-Scrabble Life Focused on Raising Her Kids and Getting By	96
Janet Shepherd: Runaway Mother Who's Seen All She's Gonna See	101
Karen Pelling: Distracted by Darts	106
Tracy Rowley: Baited, Switched, and Out	111
Paula Ryan: She Counts on Herself and Her Neighbors, Not Washington	115
Steve Gordon: Tuned Out From Politics	121
Iris Llamas: Politics Are Outside Her World	126
Serena Slaton: "The Word" Is Not Politics	130
5. Irritables	135
Henry Montoya: On Election Day, He's Voting—For No One	137
Michael Keegan: He Wants to Get Away From the Lies and Incivility	143
Melody Lewis: Hollow Faces on Parade	149
Caren Freigenberg: A New Yorker at Heart, She Won't Vote in New Jersey	152
6. Don't Knows	157
Susan Godoy: Cracks in Her Fairy-Tale World	159
Elizabeth Baxley: Family Matters, Politics Don't	163
Erica Smith: Living in Fear	168
George Perez: Right There in Spirit if Politicians Touched Social Security	174
7. Alienateds	179
Kathy Smith: Doesn't Count and Doesn't Care	180
Alma Romanowski: Registration Is Only Ninth Tenths of the Vote	184
8. Can't Shows	191
James Ayarkwa-Duah: He Knows a Vote Counts—And Wishes He Had One	193
Estela Crespo: She May Become a U.S. Citizen, But She Still May Never Vote	197
Keith Roberts: U.S. Marshal Turned Felon Turning Back	200

9. Conclusion: American Democracy Into the 21st Century	205
Appendix A	221
Appendix B	233
References	235
Other Sources	238
Index	241
About the Authors	246