

CONTENTS

FOREWORD	9
PREFACE	11
Part 1
DIETRICH BONHOEFFER – LIFE AND WORK	16
1.1. Short biography	16
1.2. Bonhoeffer's change in the understanding of Christianity and theology	30
1.3. The result of Bonhoeffer's search for new orientation of faith	32
1.4. New accents in Bonhoeffer's understanding of his personal piety	35
1.5. New understanding of the function of theology	36
1.6. Bonhoeffer's new ecclesiological accents between his first and second life period	39
1.7. Theological and ecclesiological emphases in his second period	42
Part 2
THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH AS A PLACE OF THE PRESENT CHRIST AND THE BROTHER	54
2.1. The historical and theological framework of Sanctorum Communio	54
2.2. Ecclesiology between liberalism and dialectical theology	54

2.3.	Fellowship of the saints, its creation, realisation and actualisation	59
2.4.	Brotherly love in the Church	64
2.4.1.	The origin of brotherly love (agapé)	64
2.4.2.	Concrete manifestations of brotherly love within the Church	64
2.4.2.1.	The act of fellowship	65
2.4.2.2.	The active proceedings	65
2.4.2.3.	The principle of supplication for one another in the sight of God	65
2.5.	Bonhoeffer's ecclesiology in Sanctorum Communio and its comparison with Martin Luther	67
2.6.	Summary	71

Part 3

CHRISTIAN CHURCH – THE PLACE OF GOD'S CONSTANT DWELLING IN CHRIST 74

3.1.	Actuality in theology	75
3.2.	Ontology in theology	78
3.3.	Christian Church as a place of God's continual presence in Christ	81
3.4.	Bonhoeffer's ecclesiology in Act and Being and its relationship to Luther	84
3.5.	Church as a place of knowledge one's ontological determination	87
3.6.	Christian church as a place of unity of Act and Being	89
3.7.	Summary	90
3.7.1.	Sanctorum Communio and Act and Being	91

Part 4

THE FIGHT FOR A BIBLICAL AND REFORMATION CHARACTER OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH IN GERMANY IN THE YEARS 1933-1945 95

4.1.	Nationalism as a serious threat to the theological quality of the Christian Church	95
4.2.	The application of the Aryan Paragraph to the life of the church	98
4.3.	Bonhoeffer's separation from his mother church because of nationalism	99
4.4.	Bonhoeffer's fight against nationalism within the Confessing Church	100
4.5.	Crisis in the Confessing Church	103

Part 5

THE OBEDIENT CHURCH AS A FORM OF THE HUMILIATED AND GLORIFIED JESUS CHRIST

		106
5.1.	Costly and cheap grace	106
5.1.1.	Summary	115
5.2.	The Biblically theological relevance of following Christ	116
5.2.1.	Biblical reasoning of discipleship (following)	117
5.2.2.	The essence of discipleship of (following) Christ...	118
5.2.3.	Space for following	119
5.2.4.	Carrying of the cross as a part of following	120
5.2.5.	Summary	122
5.3.	Obedient church as body of Christ	123
5.4.	The double form of the obedient church	124
5.5.	Bonhoeffer's theologia crucis and the signs of an obedient church	130
5.6.	Summary	137

Part 6

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH AS A FELLOWSHIP OF PRIESTLY SERVICE OF LOVE

		139
6.1.	Theological characteristics of Christian church as a spiritual community of faith	140
6.2.	Practical priestly ministry in a Christian church	143
6.2.1.	Lay brotherly ministry of the word of God	143
6.2.2.	The Ministry of selfless help	144
6.2.3.	The Ministry of carrying each other's burdens	144
6.2.4.	Confession and absolution	146
6.2.5.	Christ present in the church in the mutual ministry of all to all	148
6.3.	Summary	152
6.4.	Comparison of the theological emphases of Discipleship and Life Together	155

Part 7

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH AS CHRIST'S INSTRUMENT IN SERVING THIS WORLD

		157
7.1.	Reconciliation of the world – the universal act of God's love	157
7.2.	Reconciliation of the world and the relationship of the Christian Church to it	158
7.3.	Specific services of the Christian Church in the world	161
7.3.1.	Ministry of preaching God's Word	162
7.3.2.	Ministry of social help and its relationship

	to Christian faith (das Vorletzte und das Letzte)	163
7.3.3.	Responsible action of Christian Church in the world	165
7.3.4.	The possibility of meeting with Christ outside of the preached word	169
7.4.	Summary	171

Part 8

THEOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES OF A NON-RELIGIOUS CHURCH 174

8.1.	Theological determination the World Come of Age	174
8.2.	The end of religion	177
8.3.	Summary	182
8.4.	Non-religious interpretation as a struggle for theological orientation	183
8.4.1.	Non-religious interpretation as a road to the new preaching	186
8.4.2.	Summary	190
8.4.3.	Non-religious reinterpretation as a non-religious life	191
8.4.4.	Summary	193
8.5.	Non-religious church	193
8.6.	Christ's presence in the non-religious church	195
8.6.1.	The Present Christ and the suffering God in the world	197
8.7.	Summary	199

SUMMARY 202

LIST OF THE BOOKS AND JOURNAL ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THE PUBLICATION 206

BIBLIOGRAPHY 208

Primary sources: The writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer 208

List of Bonhoeffer's poems from prison translated from German into Czech language 209

Secondary sources: Printed Books and Articles in different languages 209

NAME INDEX 219