

Contents

Foreword, by Bernard Nathanson	vii
Preface, by Cardinal O'Connor	ix
Introduction	1
1 Margaret Sanger: The Founding Mother of Birth Control	5
2 The Institutionalization of Birth Control	35
3 A New Code or No Code? Planned Parenthood's Philosophy of Sex	55
4 The Sex Educators	97
5 Planned Parenthood Competing with Religion	131
6 When "Choice" Infects Medicine	175
7 Planned Parenthood and Medicine: Motherhood as a Disease	187
8 Planned Parenthood and the Pill	211
9 Evolution of the "Right to an Abortion"	239
10 Birth Control Will Prevent Abortion	267
11 Planning for the Perfect: Planned Parenthood and Eugenics	275
12 Old Lies and New Labels: When Contraception Is Abortion	291
13 Conclusion: What Planned Parenthood Has Wrought	303
Appendix I: Planned Parenthood and the Courts (How Planned Parenthood Got What It Wanted)	327
Appendix II: Judicial Origins of the Privacy Right to Abortion	339
Appendix III: Planned Parenthood and Abortion Workshops— Business Principles Inside the Killing Center	345
Acknowledgments	349
Index	351