

Contents

	List of tables	vii
	List of contributors	viii
	Preface	x
	Acknowledgements	xii
1	Gerald D. Feldman: an appreciation JEFFREY FEAR	1
2	Starting from scratch? The beginnings of Banca Commerciale Italiana: 1893–1894 PETER HERTNER	13
3	Jewish financiers in the City of London: reality and rhetoric, 1830–1914 RANALD MICHIE	38
4	The financial culture of the Habsburg Monarchy at the end of the 19th century DIETER STIEFEL	62
5	French banks and public opinion: the public's negative perception of the French banking establishment (from the 1800s to the 1950s) HUBERT BONIN	77
6	'Many a slip between cup and lip': initiating Austrian stabilisation, 1922–1923 P. L. COTTRELL	105
7	Why were there no investment trusts in Germany? An analysis of an anomaly in the German financial industry from 1870 to 1957 MARTIN L. MÜLLER	142

vi	Contents
8	Comradery, the joys of work, and the struggle to improve performance: Creditanstalt–Bankverein’s corporate newspaper, Gemeinschaft , 1939–1943	161
	ULRIKE ZIMMERL
9	A non-neutral, non-belligerent country: Portugal during the Second World War from a financial viewpoint	193
	NUNO VALÉRIO
	Index	204