

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Foreword Manuel Cepeda Espinosa	viii
1. Comparative constitutional law in Latin America: an introduction Rosalind Dixon and Tom Ginsburg	1
2. Constitution making and constitutionalism in Latin America: the role of procedural rules Gabriel L. Negretto	17
3. Constitution making and constituent power Joel Colón-Ríos	57
4. A critical mapping of transitional justice in Latin America Lucas Lixinski	87
5. Constitutional revolution in the Andes? Zachary Elkins	108
6. The new “Bolivarian” Constitutions: a textual analysis Mark Tushnet	126
7. Looking beyond the Constitution: the social and ecological function of property Helena Alviar Garcia	153
8. Equality Roberto Gargarella	176
9. Modes of disestablishment in Latin America Julieta Lemaitre	198
10. Judicial role and the limits of constitutional convergence in Latin America David Landau	227
11. Ambitious constitutions: prominent courts Oscar Vilhena Vieira	253
12. Between power and submissiveness: constitutional adjudication in Latin America Raul A. Sanchez Urribarri	276
13. The institutional limits of Inter-American constitutionalism Alexandra Huneus	300

14. The constitutional protection of economic and social rights in Latin America Carlos Bernal	325
15. The “economic constitutions” of Latin America: between free markets and socioeconomic rights Javier Couso	343
Index	361