
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Introduction Helen Irving	1
PART I CONSTITUTION-MAKING
1 Women and participatory constitution-making Silvia Suteu	19
2 Women and constitution-making in South Africa Catherine Albertyn	47
3 Gender and post-colonial constitutions in Sub-Saharan Africa Johanna Bond	81
4 International institutions, constitution-making and gender Christina Murray and Cindy Wittke	107
PART II CONSTITUTIONAL DESIGN
5 Gender equality: international law and national constitutions Wendy Lacey	135
6 'Gendering' federal constitutions Jill Vickers	163
7 A practitioner's account: the Constitution Assessment for Women's Equality Melanie Allen	195
PART III CONSTITUTIONAL PRACTICE
8 Gender equality, interpretation, and feminist pluralism Vicki C. Jackson	221
9 Gender and constitutionalism in the European Union Susan Millns	252
10 Gender equality and parity in European national constitutions Dia Anagnostou	268
11 Women judges on constitutional courts: why not nine women? Beverley Baines	290

PART IV CONSTITUTIONS AND CITIZENSHIP

- 12 Women's political citizenship in new European constitutionalism:
between constitutional amendment and progressive interpretation 323
Ruth Rubio-Marín
- 13 Indigenous women and constitutional recognition 357
Megan Davis
- 14 Citizenship and nationality 387
Helen Irving

PART V CONSTITUTIONAL CHALLENGES

- 15 Religion, custom, and legal pluralism 413
Susan H. Williams
- 16 Constitutions and reproductive rights: convergence and non-convergence 438
Rosalind Dixon and Jade Bond
- 17 Constitutions, gender and freedom of expression: the legal regulation of pornography 463
Katharine Gelber and Adrienne Stone
- 18 Constitutional approaches to gender and social and economic rights 482
Beth Goldblatt
- 19 Patriarchy and constitutional origins 501
John Kang

- Index* 525