

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Acknowledgements	page viii
Introduction	1
1 Questioning a global age of balancing	10
2 Balancing's beginnings: concepts and interests	31
3 A perfect constitutional order: balancing in German constitutional jurisprudence of the 1950s and 1960s	72
4 A dangerous doctrine: balancing in US constitutional jurisprudence of the 1950s and 1960s	122
5 Two paradigms of balancing	190
Conclusion	235
Bibliography	244
Index	273