

Contents

Introduction	5
Programme of the Seminar	7
M. Starý: Legal English Studies at the Charles University Law School, Prague	13
H. Katrňáková: Department of Foreign Languages, Section at the Faculty of Law	17
R. Vokrojová: Legal Language Training at the Faculty of Law in Pilsen	19
R. Vystrčilová: Teaching Legal English at the Faculty of Law of Palacký University in Olomouc ...	21
G. D. Brown: An Outline of Legal English Courses at the Institute for Applied Language Studies (IALS), University of Edinburgh	23
B. Vargová: Teaching Legal English at the Faculty of Law of Upjš in Košice	33
S. Šimková: The English Language Course at the Institute for International Relations, Faculty of Law, Comenius University, Bratislava	37
N. Bukšaitiene: Students's Needs Analysis at Law University of Lithuania	43
Y. Badiou: TV News and Law	49
G. D. Brown: Training to Teach English for Law: 'The Three R's'	55
B. Budíková and A. Šteflová: Approaches to Using Authentic Materials in Legal English ESP Classroom	63

B. Holická:

Check Your Vocabulary for Law

(Some Useful Exercises for Practising New Legal Terminology) 67

H. Hrušová:

Is an Effective Discussion on a Legal Topic a Utopia? 75

M. Hubáčková:

Expanding Contacts with English Speaking Lawyers 79

J. Chovanec:

Using a Book on Law as a Textbook of Legal English: A Case Study 81

S. Janigová:

Training Language Skills via Legal Reasoning 87

V. Januleviciene and G. Kavaliauskiene:

Mastering Legal English Terms: Methodology Aspects 91

E. Přidalová and K. Tozzi:

The textbook “Legal English I” 95

R. Vystrčilová:

“Comparative Legal Reasoning” Project 97