

doc. JUDr. Lucia Kurilovská, PhD., Ing. Stanislav Šišulák, PhD. The use of Agent's Institute in Crime Detection and Investigation in Cyber Environment	134
doc. JUDr. Peter Polák, PhD., JUDr. Marek Talapka Admissibility of Evidence Obtained by the Use of Information Technology for the Purposes of Criminal Proceeding	145
JUDr. Jaroslav Rapčan, PhD., JUDr. Adrián Vaško Information and Technical Means Used in Purpose Oriented Processes of Operative and Search Activity	159
PhDr. JUDr. Jozef Medelský, PhD. Historical Review of the Legislation of the Eavesdrop and Telecommunication Recording	168
JUDr. Marcela Tittlová, PhD. Theoretical and Practical Problems of Interception and Recording of Telecommunications in Criminal Proceedings	182
JUDr. Miloš Deset, PhD. Selective Constitutional and Criminal Procedural Aspects of Getting the Video, Audio or Video-audio Records	198
JUDr. Remig Kubička Information Technical Means in Criminal Proceedings – an Analysis of Some Aspects of Current Legislation with an Emphasis on Interpretation Problems	209
JUDr. Nina Vančíková Order on the Interception and Recording of the Communications Pursuant to Section 115 of the Code of Criminal Procedure	221
JUDr. Juraj Chylo PhD. Interception and Recording of Telecommunications and Notification of Communication Data	239
Mgr. Barbora Tallová The Use of Wiretapping and Recording Telecommunications in Proving the Crime of Legal Entities	247
Mgr. Monika Širilová Actual Problems of Making Video, Audio or Video-audio Recordings in Criminal Proceedings	261
JUDr. Michal Aláč, PhD. Particularities of Use Information Technical Means within the Scope of the Slovak Intelligence Service	268
prof. JUDr. Jozef Záhora, PhD. Using of Information Obtained by Technical Means in a “Non-criminal Case”	276