

Contents

PRACTICE

THEORY

The Client-Centered/Experiential Paradigm in Psychotherapy: Development and identity 1

Germain Lietaer

Foundation for a Person-Centred, Humanistic Psychology and Beyond: The nature and logic of Carl Rogers' 'Formative Tendency' 16

Ivan Ellingham

The Necessary and Sufficient Conditions of Being Person-Centered: 36

On identity, integrity, integration and differentiation of the paradigm

Peter F. Schmid

What Difference does Philosophy Make? Crossing Gendlin and Rogers 52

Marion N. Hendricks

The Organismic Valuing Process and Ethics in Person-Centred Theory 64

Sarah Hawtin

Understanding the Self Through Taoist Emptiness 73

Sachiko Hayashi and Atsushi Kara

Power in Person-Centred Therapy 79

Gillian Proctor

Focusing on Focusing: The practice and the philosophy 89

Campbell Purton

Heinz Kohut's Empathy 99

Edwin Kahn

Rogers' Empathy: A revolutionary innovation Nathaniel Raskin	105
The Person-Centered Approach and Self Psychology Gerhard Stumm	108
The Farther Reaches of Person-Centered Psychotherapy Martin Van Kalmthout	127
The Fallacy of the 'Real' Self: In praise of self structure Janet Tolan	144

RESEARCH

Congruence and Experiencing Emotions: Self-report scales for the Person-Centered and Experiential theory of personality Michael Behr and Martina Becker	150
Empirically Supported Treatment: Epitome of the 'Specificity Myth' Jerold D. Bozarth	168
Observations of Empathic Understanding in Two Client-Centered Therapists Barbara Temaner Brodley	182
Therapist's Experience of Empathy Leslie S. Greenberg and Rachel Rushanski-Rosenberg	204
Psychometric Development of Measures of In-session Focusing Activity: The Focusing-oriented Session Report and the Therapist Ratings of Client Focusing Activity James Iberg	221
Gendlin's Edge: Making fresh sense out of gay and lesbian experience Kevin C. Krycka and Deb Lambo	247
A Passionate Critique of Empirically Supported Treatments and the Provision of an Alternative Paradigm Arthur C. Bohart	258
On Becoming Congruent: How congruence works in Person-Centred Counselling and practical applications for training and practice Soti Grafanaki	278

The Theory and Experience of Person-Centred Research 291
Paul Wilkins and Zinnia Mitchell-Williams

Development of an Observer Rated Measure of Therapist Empathy 303
Jeanne C. Watson and Meghan Prosser

PRACTICE

Focusing in Client-Centred Psychotherapy Supervision: Teaching congruence 315
Marijke C. L. Baljon

Two Phases of Dissociation, Two Languages 325
Ton Coffeng

The Relationship: The heart of the matter 339
Ned L. Gaylin

Infusing Client-Centered/Person-Centered Counseling into a Traditional Counselor Education Program 348
J. Wade Hannon and Will Eckersell

Integrating Experiential and Brief Therapy Models: A guide for clinicians 356
Bala Jaison

Client-Centered Group Psychotherapy: Six theses put to the test. 370
A contribution from practice
Claude Missiaen

Psychotherapy for People with Special Needs: A challenge for client-centered psychotherapists 380
Marlis Pörtner

Person-Centered Expressive Arts Therapy: A path to wholeness 387
Natalie Rogers

Unconditionality: Being present in an attentive way to help translate thoughts into the language of feeling 400
Bob Sikkema

Client-Centered Therapy with Multi-Voiced Clients: Empathy with whom? 406
William B. Stiles and Meredith J. Glick

Working with the Inner Critic: Fighting 'the enemy' or keeping it company	415
Nele Stinckens, Germain Lietaer and Mia Leijssen
The Two-Chair Dialogue for Inner Conflict	427
Rhonda Goldman
Doctor, Please Make Me Well Again! On clients having severe subjective health complaints (the Somatoform Disorder)	448
Carla R. van der Moolen
Luke's Dilemmas: A Client-Centered/Experiential model of processing with a schizophrenic thought disorder	459
Margaret S. Warner
Person-Centered and Feminist Theories: How we connect them in our work with groups of Mexican women	473
Ann Lovering
Nondirective Client-Centered Work with Children	485
Kathryn Moon
Index	493
List of contributors	500