Contents

Introduction – 11

PART 1 COMPONENTS AND COMPETENCIES – 13

1 Hardware – 14

The perfect classroom – 15
The teacher's computer – 15
Displaying video in the classroom – 15
Internet access – 21
The students' devices – 21
Video-recording devices – 22

2 Software – 25

Video files – 25
Video-editing applications – 26
Subtitles – 30
Video-hosting sites – 31
Virtual learning environments and other online spaces – 32
Non-hosting options – 36
Downloading videos – 36
Organizing and playing video files – 38
Screenshots – 38
Screencasts – 40
QR codes – 40

PART 2 VIDEO CONTENT FOR THE CLASSROOM – 43

3 Characteristics of online video – 44

Some observations about online video – 44
Genres – 46

4 Finding and selecting videos – 57

Finding videos – 57
Suitability of material – 59
Investigating a video – 60
Copyright – 61

5 Creating your own content – 65

Considerations – 65
Monologues – 67

Dialogues – 69
Interviews – 70
Staffroom vox pops – 71

PART 3 USING VIDEO IN THE CLASSROOM – 73

6 Basics – 74
Why use video? – 74
How to use video – 75
Texts from video – 76

7 Deconstructing video – 78
Deconstruction activities – 78
The audio: spoken words – 79
The audio: non-verbal – 80
The visual: moving images – 81
The visual: stills – 83
Texts: transcribed spoken words – 83
Texts: transcribed onscreen texts – 85
Titles – 87
A formula – 88
Materials combination – 89

8 Using spoken texts – 91
Spoken texts – 91
Potential problems – 91
Three delivery approaches – 92
Meaning emergence – 93
A non-scripted monologue – 93
A non-scripted dialogue – 97
A scripted dialogue – 100

9 Using video narratives – 103
Beyond the spoken words – 103
Describing actions and movement – 104
Processes – 106
Prediction activities – 108
Videotelling – 112
Going deeper – 116

PART 4 VIDEO CAMERAS IN AND OUT OF THE CLASSROOM – 119

10 Privacy and permission – 120
Attitudes to being filmed – 120
Permission – 120
Online dangers – 122
Online safety – 123

11 Cameras in the students' hands – 126

Reasons for filming – 126
Considerations – 127
Scripts, notes, and prompts – 132
Collaborative video activities – 134
Spoken compositions – 137
Questions and answers – 138
Evaluation of students' work – 139
Non-camera video possibilities – 141

12 Cameras in the teacher's hands – 143

Filming your students – 143
Filming yourself – 145
The flipped classroom – 149
Teacher development – 150

Glossary – 151
Appendices – 154