

CONTENTS

Předmluva	5
I INTRODUCTION	13
Outline of the textbook	13
i) Composition of units	14
ii) About functions	15
iii) The aim of the textbook	16
a) What the course contains	16
b) Who the course is intended for	16
c) What each unit contains (sections A, B, C, D, E)	16
d) How to use the course	19
e) Homework?	20
f) Self study	20
iv) To the teacher – methodology	20
II UNITS	23
1. Greetings (when meeting, when leaving, attracting someone's attention)	23
2. Introductions	30
3. Talking about weather	38
4. Questions, responses	48
5. Agreement, disagreement	59
6. Likes, dislikes, preferences	68
7. Consolidation unit. How do you feel about learning English? Enjoy it!	77
8. Advice	82
9. Suggestions	88
10. Requests	97
11. Problems, troubles, worries	104
12. Opinions	112
13. Complaining, sympathy, consolation, compliments	119
14. Consolidation unit. How do you feel about learning English? Enjoy it!	127
15. Regrets, remembering, reminding	133
16. Certainty, uncertainty, doubt	140
17. Giving reasons	147
18. Please and thank you, saying you are pleased, displeased and angry	155
19. Apologies, refusing to do something	161
20. Expressing feelings, making exclamations, saying you are excited or bored	168
21. Consolidation unit. How do you feel about learning English? Enjoy it!	175
22. Surprise, disappointment, belief, approval, relief	181
23. Obligation, necessity	188

24. Invitations, proposing a toast, giving someone your general good wishes	195
25. Possibility, impossibility	206
26. Finding out about language	213
27. Making communication work, ending a conversation	222
28. Consolidation unit. How do you feel about learning English? Enjoy it and carry on!	231