

Contents

INTRODUCTION .....	5
Martin Procházka

AMERICAN LITERATURE: BEGINNINGS TO 1914

Martin Procházka

1. Historical Influences & Distinctive Features .....	7
2. Periodization of American Literature .....	16
3. Earliest Monuments of American Literature .....	19
4. The Shaping of the Puritan Self .....	29
5. The Eighteenth Century: The Great Awakening & the Enlightenment .....	38
6. Revolution & the Early Republic .....	46
7. Inventing the Indians: Bryant, Cooper, Simms & Longfellow .....	57
8. American Gothic: Brockden Brown & Poe .....	66
9. American Transcendentalism: Emerson & Thoreau .....	75
10. Late Romanticism: Hawthorne & Melville .....	85
11. The Birth of Modern Poetry: Whitman & Dickinson .....	96
12. Mark Twain, the Tall Tale, & Local Color .....	106
13. Fictions of Realism: Howells & James .....	114
14. The Naturalists .....	126
15. Abolitionism & African American Literature from Beginnings through the Harlem Renaissance .....	135
16. Women's Literature before World War I .....	145
WORKS CITED .....	159

TWENTIETH-CENTURY POETRY

Justin Quinn

1. Ezra Pound & T.S. Eliot .....	161
2. Frost, Williams & Stevens .....	180
3. Lowell, Bishop & Plath .....	198
4. Ashbery, Merrill & Graham .....	208

TWENTIETH-CENTURY AMERICAN FICTION

Hana Ulmanová, Erik S. Roraback

1. American Southern Literature -----	225
2. The '20s and '30s in American Fiction (Lost Generation) -----	238
3. American Jewish Literature -----	254
4. Modern & Contemporary African American Literature -----	268
5. The '50s and '60s in American Fiction (Beat Generation) -----	279
6. Contemporary American Literature 1 -----	290
7. Contemporary American Literature 2 (Erik S. Roraback) -----	299
WORKS CITED -----	312