

Contents

Introduction – 9

PART 1 THE INDIVIDUAL LEARNER – 11

- 1 A love of language learning? – 12
 - The pleasure of learning – 12
 - Pleasure in language – 15
- 2 Reflecting on the future – 20
 - The ideal future self – 20
 - The ‘ought to’ self – 23
 - The present self – 25
 - Reinforcing future self-guides – 26
- 3 Seeing progress – 28
 - Setting goals – 28
 - Progress orientation – 32
 - Owning progress – 34
- 4 Motivating specific behaviours – 37
 - Learner behaviour – 37
 - Rewards – 39
 - Modelling – 41

PART 2 THE LEARNING CONTEXT – 45

- 5 Teacher behaviour – 46
 - Welcoming students – 46
 - Starting work – 46
 - Demotivation – 48
 - Ending lessons – 51
- 6 The learning environment – 53
 - Using space – 53
 - The social environment – 54
 - Wall space and decoration – 55
 - Multisensory spaces – 58

7 Learner roles: independence and responsibility – 60

Barriers to achieving independence – 60

Developing independence – 62

8 Motivating materials – 66

Coursebooks – 66

Digital media – 69

Content-based language teaching (CBLT) – 70

9 Task design – 73

Creativity and skill – 73

Collaboration – 75

Choice – 76

Challenge – 77

Control – 78

PART 3 ISSUES IN MOTIVATION – 8110 Students as individuals – 82

Age – 82

Gender and social roles – 84

Aptitude – 85

Personality – 86

Special educational needs (SEN) – 86

11 Student background – 88

Family background – 88

Learning background – 90

Cultural background – 91

12 Teacher motivation – 94

The school environment – 94

Staff development – 95

Evaluation practices – 97

Glossary – 99Useful websites – 101