

14. The male detainees' release outside Lubango	161
15. Kaulilwa Napeido and Abed Haurwanga at the Trumb Old Age Home	181
16. Namibians in a classroom at Tobias Hamyeko Training Centre	201
17. The "Living in Exile" exhibition in Keemanshoop	207

Contents

List of Maps and Photos	page viii
Acknowledgments	xi
List of Abbreviations	xv
PART I – CAMP, NATION, HISTORY
1. Liberation Movement Camps and the Past of the Present in Southern Africa	3
2. Revisiting an Image of a Camp: Remember Cassinga?	30
PART II – CAMPS AND THE FORMATION OF A NATION
3. Living in Exile: Life and Crisis at SWAPO's Kongwa Camp, 1964–1968	65
4. Ordering the Nation: SWAPO in Zambia, 1974–1976	94
5. "The Spy" and the Camp: SWAPO in Lubango, 1980–1989	123
PART III – CAMPS AND THE PRODUCTION OF HISTORY
6. Namibia's "Wall of Silence": Challenging National History in the International System	149
7. Reconciliation in Namibia? Narrating the Past in a Postcamp Nation	185
8. The Camp and the Postcolony	215
Bibliography	233
Index	251