

Preface vii

Acknowledgments ix

- ① Franklin W. Knight and Colin A. Palmer
The Caribbean
A Regional Overview 1
- ~~2~~ David Geggus
The Haitian Revolution 21
- ③ Francisco A. Scarano
Labor and Society in the Nineteenth Century 51
- ④ Bridget Brereton
Society and Culture in the Caribbean
The British and French West Indies, 1870–1980 85
- ⑤ Colin A. Palmer
Identity, Race, and Black Power in Independent Jamaica 111
- ~~6~~ Herman L. Bennett
The Challenge to the Post-Colonial State
A Case Study of the February Revolution in Trinidad 129

- ~~7~~ Blanca G. Silvestrini
Contemporary Puerto Rico
A Society of Contrasts 147
- ~~8~~ Franklin W. Knight
Cuba
Politics, Economy, and Society, 1898–1985 169
- ~~9~~ Teresita Martínez Vergne
Politics and Society in the Spanish Caribbean during the Nineteenth Century 185
- 10 Bonham C. Richardson
Caribbean Migrations, 1838–1985 203
- ~~11~~ Jay R. Mandle
British Caribbean Economic History
An Interpretation 229
- ~~12~~ Anthony P. Maingot
Caribbean International Relations 259
- ~~13~~ Roberto Márquez
Nationalism, Nation, and Ideology
Trends in the Emergence of a Caribbean Literature 293
- Bibliography 341
- Contributors 363
- Index 367

- Abolition. See Emancipation
- Abolition Act of 1833, 8
- Abolitionism. See Antislavery movement
- Abolitionist novel, 297
- Act of Chapultepec (1945), 261
- Adams, Grantley, 93, 264
- Adams, Tom, 286
- African history: teaching of, 118, 121–22, 126, 131. See also Cultural authenticity
- Afro-Cubans, 173–74
- Agriculture: diversification of, 241–42; in Jamaica, 231–32; and land reform, 252; role in Caribbean economy, 5; stagnation of, 242; weakness of, 252. See also Plantation economy; Sugar industry; Tobacco
- Alliance for Progress, 268
- Alonso, Manuel A., 299–302
- Americanization: Puerto Rican resistance to, 165–67
- American Revolution: influence on Saint Domingue, 25
- Amis des Noirs, 25, 27. See also Antislavery movement
- Analyse schematique*, 1932–34 (Roumain), 319
- Anciens libres*. See Free coloreds
- Annexation movement: in Cuba, 188
- Anticolonialism: in literature, 323
- Anticommunism, 263–69; and collective security, 265–66; and labor unions, 264; and Monroe Doctrine, 266. See also United States: Caribbean policy
- Antiimperialism: in Trinidad, 136–37
- Antislavery movement: and British politics, 54; effect on slave plantations, 54; objectives of, 56–57. See also Emancipation
- Apprenticeship, 65–66, 83 (n. 7); abolition of, 66–67; in Cuba, 81; grievance system, 66; libreta system, 77–78. See also Indentured labor
- Arbenz, Jacobo, 265, 266
- Archetypal symbols: Ariel, 328–29; Caliban, 329–30; Crusoe, 329. See also Literary tropes
- Arevalo, Juan José, 265
- Ariel* (Rodó), 311
- “Aruba houses,” 225
- Atlantic Charter, 157–58
- Báez, Buenaventura, 198, 199, 200–201
- Bahamas: relations with Cuba, 279–80
- Baldwin, Hanson W., 277
- Baptist War (1831–32), 65
- Barbados: emigration, 206; population density, 223
- Barbados Tourist Development Board, 247
- Batista, Fulgencio, 173, 174–75; overthrow of, 176–77
- Bauxite, 246. See also Natural resources
- Bay of Pigs invasion, 267. See also United States: relations with Cuba
- Beacon, The*, 320–21. See also Literary journals
- Bedward, Alexander, 105
- Beet sugar, 236. See also Sugar industry
- Békés, 91

- Best, Lloyd, 131, 230, 248
- Biassou, 30, 32, 35, 36, 38. See also Haitian Revolution
- Bishop, Maurice, 16, 284–85, 287. See also Grenada; People's Revolutionary Government
- Black consciousness: and class, 126; organizations promoting, 115. See also Black nationalism; Black Power movement; Negritude; Rastafarian movement
- Black Jacobins: Toussaint Louverture and the San Domingo Revolution* (James), 321
- Black Lightning* (Mais), 322
- Black nationalism, 114, 304–5; and John Jacob Thomas, 307–8. See also Black consciousness; Black Power movement
- Black Panthers, 140
- Black Power movement: achievements of, 143–44; divisions in, 140; East Indian relations, 138–39; and economic conditions, 249; and ethnic integration, 118, 127 (n. 26); Jamaican political reaction to, 119–21; and nationalism, 133–34; objectives of, 117–18, 125; opposition to, 139–40; organizational alliances with, 137, 141–42; political activism, 131; public reaction to, 121–24; reasons for, 124–25; and reformism, 143; support for, 134–35; and violence, 125; and Eric Williams, 140. See also February Revolution; National Joint Action Committee; October riot
- Black Skin, White Masks* (Fanon), 218
- Blanco, Tomás, 312
- Bobadilla, Tomás, 200
- Bonaparte, Napoleon, 43–45
- Book Institute, 182
- Boyer, Henri, 197
- Bozales*, 76
- Brathwaite, Edward, 327
- Bréda, Toussaint. See Louverture, Toussaint
- British West Indies: apprenticeship in, 65–67; colonization of, 62; freedmen in, 68–69; free villages in, 71–72; labor recruitment in, 72–74; slave population of, 63–64; slave revolts in, 65; slave trade to, 63, 64–65; and sugar production, 63; transition to free labor in, 65–66
- Brixton riots, 217
- Brooke, John, 170
- Brussels Convention of 1902, 237
- Burnham, Forbes, 253; relations with Eric Gairy, 285. See also Anticommunism
- Bustamante, Alexander, 264. See also Anticommunism
- Cahier d'un retour au pays natal* (Césaire), 318
- Canada: immigration policy, 222. See also Labor migration
- Captains-general: policy toward Cuban sugar planters, 187; in Puerto Rico, 192–93
- Caribbean: definition, 3–4, 19 (n. 2); domination of, 259–60, 290; economic conditions, 17–18, 247, 249–50, 288; economic history, 51–62; esthetic, 295; ethnic groups, 7; ethnicity, 16; evolution of literature, 335; foreign relations, 259–60, 268–69, 289–90; internationalization, 289; language, 16; literacy, 16; nationalism, 309; natural resources, 4–6; overview, 1–3; political characteristics of, 288; political organization of, 3–4; political stability, 289; population of, 3; significance of ethnic identity, 288–89;

- South African policy, 285; and U.S. military security, 278–79; West Indian solidarity, 286
- Caribbean Basin Initiative, 254–55, 288. See also United States: Caribbean policy
- Caribbean Development Bank (CDB), 283
- CARICOM (Caribbean Community and Common Market), 283; and Grenada, 286
- Carifesta, 334
- Carnival (Trinidad), 106
- Carpentier, Alejo, 312–13, 314, 326
- Carriacou, 90
- Carter, Jimmy, 271–72
- Carter initiative, 272, 276–77. See also Multilateralism
- Casa de las Américas, 333–34
- Castro, Fidel, 269. See also Castro Revolution; 26th of July Movement
- Castro Revolution (1959), 176–82; achievements of, 184; effects of, 177–78; influence on regional identity, 333–34; and nationalism, 15; stages of, 178; U.S. response to, 266–67
- Césaire, Aimé, 318–19
- Chamberlain, Joseph, 236
- Chavannes, Jean-Baptiste, 28
- Children, 103
- Chinese, 95. See also Coolies
- Christianity: African influences on, 104. See also Religion
- Christophe, Henry, 45–46, 49
- Civil rights movement (U.S.): influence on Jamaican racial consciousness, 115–16
- Class: and cultural consciousness, 310–11; in literature, 338–39 (n. 62); and political alliances, 310; in Puerto Rican economy, 193–94; in Puerto Rican politics, 194; rehistoricization of, 324. See also Class consciousness; Class stratification
- Class consciousness: and labor relations, 83
- Class stratification, 86–87, 88; and race, 92–93
- Code Napoleon, 197
- Cold War, 263–69. See also Anticommunism; United States: Caribbean policy
- Collective security, 261, 291 (n. 16); and anticommunism, 265–66; and U.S. Caribbean policy, 262
- Collective voice, 327–28
- Colonial Assembly, 26–27, 31. See also Saint Domingue
- Colonial Development and Welfare (CDW), 239
- Colonialism: dismantling of, 11; economy of, 11; overview, 6–10. See also Colonial rule
- Colonial rule: and labor migration, 205; labor policy, 73–74; response to end of plantation economy, 238
- Coloreds: as social class, 88; social mobility of, 91
- Commonwealth Caribbean, 4
- Commonwealth Immigrants Act (1962), 216–17
- Communist organizations, 280
- Compulsory labor, 59
- Conde, Maryse, 319
- Congo, 112
- Contract labor. See Coolies; Indentured labor
- Coolies, 59–60, 73; in Cuba, 78; importation of, 96, 208–9; strikes by, 73. See also Indentured labor
- Cooperative socialism, 253
- Costa Rica: civil war of 1948, 263

- Creek-and-river movement, 83–84
(n. 12)
- Creoles: relations with East Indians, 96–98; in Saint Domingue, 23–24; as social class, 88
- Creolization, 294–95, 296; African influence on, 112–13; and rejection of European models, 309. See also Cultural identity
- Cricket, 107
- Crosswaith, Frank, 214
- Crown Colony governments, 74
- Cuba: access to mass media, 178; Angolan airlift, 279; annexation movement, 188; athletics, 181; captains-general of, 187; cinema, 182–83; constitution, 180; demography, 76; economic condition, 180–81; economic policy, 173, 179, 180; effects of emancipation on, 56, 79, 80–81; effects of U.S. occupation on, 170–71; elites, 169; emigrants to United States, 221–22; exiles from, 183–84; foreign debt, 181; foreign policy, 179–80; foreign relations, 281; formation of national identity, 298; relations with Jamaican labor, 211; Juan de la Pezuela, 187, 188; Junta de Información (1866), 189; labor importation, 209; Liberals, 172; literacy, 178, 182; living conditions, 181; Miguel Tacón, 187, 188; ministers, 183; nationalism, 186, 191, 192; Nationalists, 169; plantation economy in, 74–75, 76; political organization of, 180; political parties in, 173; politics in, 172–73; publications, 182; reform movement, 188–89; regional influence of, 279–82; relations with Caribbean states, 179–80; relations with Soviet Union, 179; relations with United States, 169–70; religion, 183, 184 (n. 9); revision of electoral laws, 172; slave demography of, 81; slaves in, 76; sovereignty of, 171; Spanish rule of, 186–87; Spanish taxes on, 189; sugar industry, 186–87; sugar production, 180–81, 184 (n. 4); U.S. military governors, 170; war for independence, 191–92. See also Castro Revolution; Cuban Republic; Platt Amendment; Spanish-American War
- Cuban missile crisis (1962), 267–68
- Cuban Republic, 171; distribution of wealth, 176; economy, 175–76; living conditions, 176; political corruption, 173, 174; political legitimacy, 175; political system, 176; sugar production, 175; U.S. influence on politics, 175; wages, 176
- Cuban Revolution. See Castro Revolution
- Cuba: Order and Revolution* (Domínguez), 173
- Cudjoe, Selwyn R., 336–37 (n. 26)
- Cultivateurs*, 99
- Cultural authenticity, 109; and teaching of African history, 118, 121–22, 126, 131
- Cultural consciousness: and class, 301–2, 303, 310–11; evolution of, 297; and language, 305–6; and nationalism, 306. See also Cultural identity
- Cultural identity: black influence on, 312–14; and language, 330–31; and literature, 334–35; and rejection of Western models, 318–19. See also Regionalism
- “Curaçao houses,” 225
- Damas, Léon, 315
- Dance, 106
- DeBoissiere, R. A. C., 320
- Debt peonage, 60–61
- de Céspedes, Carlos Manuel, 79, 189, 190

- Decolonization: and literary identity, 321; and social revolt, 127–30
- De Diego, José, 311
- de la Pezuela, Juan, 187, 188
- DeLisser, Herbert, 312
- de Martínez, Claudio, 187–88
- Democratic Left: and anticommunism, 263–64; formation of, 263
- Demography: of ethnic groups, 7; of slavery, 7; and unemployment, 238–39
- Dependent development, 248–49
- Dependent development strategy, 130–31, 133. See also Lewis, W. Arthur
- Depression. See Great Depression
- Dessalines, Jean-Jacques, 38, 41, 49; and annexation of Santo Domingo, 47–48; declaration of independence, 47; war of independence, 45–47. See also Dominican Republic: Jean-Jacques Dessalines and
- Developmental socialism, 256–57
- Diffuse reciprocity, 285–87
- Discours antillais, Le* (Glissant), 331
- Disease, 102–3
- Domingo, W. A., 213–14
- Dominican Republic: Article 210 of constitution of, 200; and cultural identity, 302–4; Jean-Jacques Dessalines and, 197; emigrants to United States, 222; and growth of nationalism, 196–97; Haiti's domination of, 197–98; independence, 199–201; and Jamaican labor, 211; political factions, 199–201; regional conflicts, 201; relations with France, 198; relations with Spain, 197; relations with United States, 198–99; repulsion of Haiti, 198; Samaná peninsula, 198–99; as Spain's protectorate, 199; War of Restoration, 199
- Duarte, Juan Pablo, 197, 200
- Du Bois, W. E. B., 214
- Dulles, John Foster, 263
- Eastern Caribbean Central Bank (ECCB), 283
- East Indians, 95; education of, 97; in February Revolt, 138–39, 144 (n. 13); importation of, 207–8; relations with Creoles, 96–98. See also Indentured labor
- Economic development, 18, 87, 228–29; case study (Jamaica), 231–32; dependent development strategy, 130–31, 133; and dependent growth, 248–49; and developmental socialism, 256–57; diversification, 61–62; 240–42; and education, 257; indigenous development, 250–51, 253; influences on, 230–31; and plantation economy, 230; reasons for failure, 256; requirements for, 252–53; technological development, 230–31, 238; and U.S. policy, 257. See also Industrialization; Land reform
- Economic history, 51–62
- Economic policy: cooperative socialism, 253; failure of, 250–51; and indigenous development, 256; and nationalization, 253–54; and state intervention, 249–51; and unemployment. See also Economic development
- Economy: and politics, 11, 17
- Education, 9–10, 107–8; and economic development, 257; effect on culture, 108; elementary, 107; enrollment, 107–8; in French Antilles, 108–9; in plantation economy, 234; secondary, 108; and social mobility, 90, 108
- Eisenhower, Dwight D., 266
- Eisner, Gisela, 231
- Elections: influence of Cuba on, 281–82
- Emancipation, 8–9, 55–56, 82; in Cuba, 79, and Cuban annexation movement,

- 188; in Dominican Republic, 197; effects of, 55, 85–86; effects on Cuban plantation economy, 80–81; effects on labor costs, 233–34; effects on labor migration, 206, 207–8; effects on plantation economy, 54–55; effects on slaves, 55, 65; and Haitian Revolution, 32–33; influence on literature, 304–5; patterns of, 56; process of, 56–57; and Puerto Rican reform, 195; reactions to, 57, 68–69; and slave revolts, 55
- Emancipation Decree of 1794, 48
- Emigration. See Labor migration; Migration
- Employment: creation of, 245; by government, 246; and industrialization, 245; rates, 247
- Endogamy, 94
- English in the West Indies* (Froude), 306
- Enriquillo* (Galván), 302–4
- Epidemics, 102
- Esteñoz, Evaristo, 173
- Esthetic, 295
- Estrada Palma, Tomás, 171–72
- Ethiopia, 114
- Ethnic groups, 7; rivalries among, 208
- Ethnicity, 16, 288–89; and politics, 15
- Exiles: from Cuba, 183–84
- Exports: role in industrialization, 244
- Fabian Society, 10; and unions, 13
- Fair Labor Standards Act: in Puerto Rico, 155
- Fanon, Frantz, 317
- Fascell, Dante B., 270–71. See also Multilateralism
- February Revolution: funeral of Basil Davis, 141; general strike, 142; government response to, 137, 138; march to Caroni, 138–39; Marxism, 141; objectives of protesters, 135–36, 142–43; participants in, 135–36; reasons for failure, 143; resignation of A. N. R. Robinson, 141; response of Eric Williams, 140, 142; role of John Gomez, 137; role of Roman Catholic church, 136; State of Emergency, 142; violence during, 137–38. See also Black Power movement; National Joint Action Committee
- Federal Capital Site Commission, 93
- Fermor, Patrick Leigh, 93
- Festivals, 106
- Figueres, José, 263
- Fishing, 100
- Folklore, 332
- Food crop production, 241
- Foraker Act (1900), 148, 159
- France: immigration to, 217–18; overseas departments, 3; racial policy in Saint Domingue, 28–29; treatment of immigrants, 217–18
- Franchise, 13
- Free coloreds: in American Revolution, 25; rise to power in Saint Domingue, 31–32; of Saint Domingue, 22–23
- Freedmen: alternatives available to, 67; as indentured labor, 65; labor strategies, 68–69, 70; and land availability, 70; migration of, 206–7; reaction to emancipation, 68–69; strikes by, 69. See also Freeholding
- Freeholding: effects on social structure, 70–71; restrictions on, 72
- Free labor: exploitation of, 58–61; in Spanish Caribbean, 78–79; transition to, 61–62, 65–66, 68
- Free villages, 69, 71–72, 206
- French Antilles: education in, 108–9; race relations in, 94–95; social mobility in, 91
- French Revolution: influence on Saint

- Domingue, 26–31
- Froudacity: West Indian Fables Explained* (Thomas), 306, 307
- Froude, James Anthony, 306–8
- Gairy, Eric, 279, 284
- Galván, Manuel de Jesús, 302–4, 336–37 (n. 26)
- Gambling, 106–7
- García Menocal, Mario, 174
- Garvey, Marcus: and Black Power, 117, 213
- Geopolitics, 259
- Georgetown conference (1971), 278
- Glissant, Edouard, 326; on language, 331
- Gomes, Albert, 320
- Gómez, José Miguel, 172
- Gómez, Máximo, 189, 191
- Good Neighbor Policy, 174
- Granger, Geddes, 136, 137, 138, 141
- Grau, Ramón, 175
- Great Britain: colonies of, 4; migration to, 216; occupation of Saint Domingue, 33–34; response to immigration and immigrants, 216–17
- Great Depression: effects on labor migration, 215; effects on Puerto Rico, 151
- Grenada: and CARICOM, 286; coup d'état, 279, 287; economic policy, 256; influence on regional identity of revolution in, 334; U.S. intervention in, 287; legality of intervention, 287–88; and West Indies solidarity, 285–86. See also People's Revolutionary Government
- Group for Cooperation in Economic Development, 276
- Guantánamo Bay, 171
- Guaracha del Macho Camacho, La* (Sánchez), 332–33
- Guerrilla warfare, 189–90; in Dominican Republic, 198. See also Ten Years' War
- Guillén, Nicolás, 313–15
- Guyana: anticommunism in, 264–65
- Hacendados: post-emancipation labor policy, 77. See also Plantocracy
- Haile Selassie, 114
- Haiti: emigration from, 218; independence, 47, 49–50; migration to United States, 220–21; race relations in, 335 (n. 4); reaction to independence, 48. See also Saint Domingue
- Haitian Revolution: black soldiers in, 33–34; British occupation, 38–39; and colonial politics, 26–29; declaration of war, 32; effect of emancipation, 32–33; influence of American Revolution on, 25; influence of French Revolution on, 26–31; participants in, 30–31; and racial identity, 295–96; reasons for, 29–30; role of free coloreds in, 27–29; role of whites in, 27–29; slave revolt, 29–31; Spanish occupation, 33–34, 35–38. See also Louverture, Toussaint; Saint Domingue
- Harris, Wilson, 324–26
- Havana Reform Club, 188–89
- Hearn, Lafcadio, 100, 105
- Heureaux, Ulises, 201
- Hills Were Joyful Together, The* (Mais), 321–22
- Hinduism, 104
- History: influence on literature, 294–95; in literature, 324–27
- Horse racing, 106
- Hotel Aid Act of 1956, 247
- House for Mr. Biswas* (Naipaul), 294
- Hugues, Victor, 48
- Ile de la Tortue, 259
- Immigrants, 95–96; influence in United

- States, 213–14; personality changes in, 226; remittance payments of, 210–11; return of, 207; as social class, 88–89, 89–90; status of, 225–26; unemployment of, 217. See also Labor migration; Migration
- Indentured labor, 59–60, 72–74; consequences of, 9; in Cuba, 78–79; freedmen as, 65; importation of, 8–9, 207–9, 234; relations with freedmen, 208; treatment of, 208. See also Coolies
- Independence: and nationalism, 298–99
- Independent states, 3
- Industrialization, 5, 230; and creation of employment, 245; effect on slavery in Cuba, 79; and exports, 244; failure of, 244–45; foreign investment in, 243–44, 245; of Jamaica, 232; and labor migration, 245–46; of Puerto Rico, 156–57, 162; recommendation of W. Arthur Lewis, 243–42; and regional integration, 244; rejection of, 240; and suppression of indigenous enterprises, 249; and tourism, 247. See also Economic development
- Insularismo* (Pedreira), 312
- Intellectual Workers for Regional Sovereignty of the Caribbean Peoples, conferences of (1981, 1983), 334
- Inter-American Conference at Montevideo (1933), 261
- Internationalization, 289
- Isthmian Canal Commission, 209
- Ivonet, Pedro, 173
- Jamaica: agriculture, 231–32; anticommunism, 282; Black Power movement, 117–19; creolization, 112–13; economic development of, 231–32; economic policy, 253–54; industrialization in, 232; labor productivity, 231–32; literacy, 234; October riot (1968), 119–20; racial harmony in, 113–14; racial identity, 111; and racial justice, 116–17; Rastafarian movement, 114; Revivalist sects, 105; Workers Party of Jamaica, 280
- Jamaica* (Salkey), 326–27
- Jamaican rebellion (1831–32), 65
- James, C. L. R., 320–21
- Jane's Career* (DeLisser), 312
- Jean-François, 30, 32, 35, 36, 38. See also Haitian Revolution
- Jíbaro, El* (Alonso), 299–302
- Jobbing gangs, 69
- Jones Act (1917), 148, 152
- Jonkonnu, 105
- Junta de Información (1866), 189
- Kaywana trilogy (Mittelholzer), 323
- Kennedy, John F., 267
- King, Martin Luther, Jr., 116–17
- Kissinger, Henry, 271, 272
- Labor: exploitation of in post-emancipation Spanish Caribbean, 77–78; politicization of, 13; politicization of in Puerto Rico, 153–54; relations, 82
- Labor exaction: compulsory labor, 59; coolies, 59–60; indentured labor, 59–60; strategies for, 58–60
- Labor importation, 207–9. See also Coolies; Indentured labor
- Labor migration, 82–83, 101, 203–4; from Barbados, 206; effects on demographics, 210, 212; effect on industrialization, 245–46; and emancipation, 206, 207; to France, 217–18; to Great Britain, 216–17; to Netherlands, 218–19; and oil production, 214; and overpopulation, 205; to Panama Canal Zone, 210; from Puerto Rico, 151–52; restriction of, 215; roots of, 204–5; of skilled labor, 246; and slavery, 205–6;

- and sugar industry, 211; to United States, 212–13; and World War II, 215–16. See also Migration
- Labor movement: growth of, 12–14; organization of, 69; and political activism, 150; in Puerto Rico, 150. See also Unionization
- Labor organizations, 12–14; and political parties, 14
- Labor productivity: in Jamaica, 231–32
- Labor recruitment, 72–74; for Panama Canal, 209–10. See also Coolies; Indentured labor
- LaLeau, Léon, 315
- Lamming, George, 325
- Land distribution, 98, 241. See also Land reform
- Land reform: and economic development, 252, 256–57; in Puerto Rico, 156
- Language, 16; and cultural identity, 305–6, 330–31; and social mobility, 90. See also Literary tropes: language
- Latinism, 311–12
- Laveaux, Etienne, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40; attempted coup, 39
- Leclerc, Charles Victor Emmanuel, 45–46
- Legión del Caribe, La, 263
- Léro, Etienne, 316
- Lewis, W. Arthur, 130–31, 240, 243–44
- Liberal Conservatives: objectives of, 194
- Liberal Reformists: divisions in, 195; and emancipation, 195; objectives of, 194–95; relations with Spain, 195
- Libreta* system, 77–78
- Literacy, 16; in Cuba, 178
- Literary identity, 293–94; influence of European models on, 298–99, 303; political power of, 321. See also Cultural identity
- Literary journals, 317–18; and anticolonialism, 323
- Literary tropes: archetypal symbol, 328–30; history, 324–27; language, 330–33
- Literature: abolitionist novel, 297; anticolonialism in, 323; archetypal symbol in, 328–30; blacks in, 302–3; class in, 338–39 (n. 62); collective voice in, 327–28; and cultural authenticity, 296–97; and cultural identity, 334–35; folklore in, 332; influence of European models on, 337 (n. 28); influence of history on, 294–95; influence of migration on, 338 (n. 47); influence of United States on, 311–12; language of, 330–33; peasantry in, 300–301; and racist determinism, 312; as reflection of nationalist goals, 301, 303–4; regionalism in, 294–95, 320; and rehistoricization of class, 324; slavery in, 311–12, 336 (n. 19); slaves in, 297–98
- Livestock, 227
- Living conditions, 101–3
- Logging, 100
- Lômé Convention, 272, 283
- Lost Steps, The* (Carpentier), 326
- Louverture, Toussaint: ascendancy of, 41–45; background, 34–35; as governor, 41–43; and labor relations, 42–43; as military leader, 35–40; and plantation economy, 42–43; relations with Biassou, 35; relations with France, 36–38; relations with Great Britain, 44–45; relations with Jean-François, 35; relations with Laveaux, 40; relations with Napoleon, 43–45; relations with Rigaud, 41; relations with Spain, 36–38; relations with Sonthonax, 40; relations with United States, 44; role in slave revolt, 35; and war of independence, 45–47. See also Haitian Revolution

- Maceo, Antonio, 298
- Machado, Gerardo, 173; administration of, 174
- McKay, Claude, 213–14
- Magoon, Charles, 172
- Mais, Roger, 321–22
- Manley, Michael: economic policy, 253–54; relations with Maurice Bishop, 284–85; relations with Cuba, 281–82
- Manley, Norman: and anticommunism, 264
- Manufacturing: indigenous development, 249; wages, 251
- Mariel flotilla, 221
- Maroons, 24–25
- Martí, José, 191, 298–99, 334–35
- Martínez Campos, Arsenio, 190
- Marxism: in February Revolution, 141
- Mass media, 107
- Medical care, 102–3
- “Memorandum of Understanding” (1982), 291 (n. 16)
- Mendes, Alfred, 320
- Mercantile system, 52–53
- Mestizaje*. See Negrismo
- Michel, Pierre, 40
- Middle class, 88; and development of nationalism, 92; economic condition of, 91–92; growth of, 90–91; and race, 92
- Migration, 227–28; to Canada, 222; demographic patterns of, 223–24; effects on Caribbean, 223–25; of freedmen, 206–7; illegal, 220, 221; influence on literature, 338 (n. 47); influence on personalities, 226; influence of physical environment on, 226–27; as livelihood strategy, 223; reasons for, 96, 222, 223; return of migrants, 207; status of migrants, 225–26; to United States, 219–20, 221. See also Immigrants; Labor migration
- Ministates, 282–84
- Mir, Pedro, 327–28
- Miskito Indians, 224
- Mittelholzer, Edgar, 323
- Moise, 38, 42
- Monroe Doctrine, 259, 260, 270; and anticommunism, 266
- Moore, Richard B., 213–14
- Moret Law (1870), 79
- Mortality, 103; rate, 238
- Moyne Commission, 239–40, 243
- Mulattoes: as class, 316; as cultural symbol, 315–16. See also Free coloreds
- Multilateralism, 271–74, 276. See also Carter initiative
- Muñoz Marín, Luis, 158
- Muñoz Rivera, Luis, 195
- Naipaul, V. S., 294, 329
- Narcotics, 18, 288
- Nationalism, 15–16; and Black Power movement, 133–34; and class, 309–10; and cultural consciousness, 306; development of, 92; in literature, 320; and race, 298. See also National Joint Action Committee
- Nationalist party (Puerto Rico): objectives, 153–154
- Nationalist populism, 309–10
- Nationalization: as economic policy, 253–54
- National Joint Action Committee (NJAC), 129; ideological position of in February Revolution, 136–137; and Marxism, 133; and nationalism, 133–34; objectives of, 132–33; objectives of in February Revolution, 141; and political consciousness, 133; race relations, 133; and reformism, 143; relations with East Indians, 138–39; support for, 134–35; weaknesses of, 143. See also Black Power movement; February Revolution

- National sovereignty, 261–62
- Natives of My Person* (Lamming), 325–26
- Natural resources, 4–6. See also Bauxite; Oil
- Nau, Emile, 296
- Needlework industry, 149–50
- Negrismo*, 312–16; and socialism, 315
- Negritude, 316–18, 319
- Negro World*, 213
- Netherlands: migration to, 218–19; treatment of immigrants, 219
- Netherlands Antilles, 3–4
- New Day* (Reid), 322–23
- New World Group, 129–31; economic plan of, 130–31; objectives of, 131; criticisms of, 131
- New World trilogy (Brathwaite), 327
- Nietschmann, Bernard, 224
- Obeahman/woman, 103, 104–5
- October riot (1968), 119–20, 125
- Ogé, Vincent, 28
- Oil: and labor migration, 214; production of, 246, 251. See also Natural resources
- Operation Bootstrap, 157, 268
- Organization of American States (OAS), 261–62; and multilateralism, 271–72; response to Castro Revolution, 266–68; response to Guatemalan communism, 265–66; and U.S. foreign policy, 265–66
- Organization of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS), 283
- Organ of Consultation: function of, 262
- Ortega y Gasset, José, 311
- Our America* (Martí), 334–35
- Overseas departments. See France: overseas departments
- Pact of Rio de Janeiro, 261; provisions of, 262
- Palace of the Peacock* (Lamming), 325
- Palés Matós, Luis, 312, 314, 315
- Panama Canal: labor recruitment for, 209–10
- Panama Canal Treaty, 273
- Panama Canal Zone: working conditions, 210
- Pan-Caribbean movement, 11
- Patronato*, 81. See also Apprenticeship
- Peasantry: and distribution of land, 234, 240; economic condition of, 99–100; effect on plantation economy, 235, 236–37; establishment of, 9, 68; growth of, 99; in literature, 300–301; restriction of, 235. See also Smallholders
- Pedreira, Antonio S., 312
- People's National Movement (PNM): and Black Power movement, 131; and February Revolution, 140–41
- People's Progressive party: split in, 264
- People's Revolutionary Government (PRG), 16; and Carter initiative, 285; West Indian relations, 284–85, 285–87. See also Bishop, Maurice; Grenada Petroleum. See Oil
- Picado, Teodoro, 263
- Pioneer Industries program, 245
- Plantation economy, 65, 232–33; and abolitionism, 54; breakdown of, 236–42; in Cuba, 74–75; definition, 53; development of, 6, 54; and economic development, 232–42; effects of abolition of slave trade on, 64; effects of Cuban emancipation on, 80–81; effects of emancipation on, 55; effects of technological development on, 237–38; and indentured labor, 234; and industrialization, 240; labor control, 58–61; and land distribution, 241; limitations of, 236; and peasantry, 233–35, 236–37; and planter class, 233; in

- Puerto Rico, 74–75, 77–78; and slavery, 233; and suppression of education, 234; survival of, 235. See also Economic development
- Plantation stores, 60–61
- Plantocracy: and British colonial labor policy, 234–35; and labor control, 58–61; reaction to emancipation, 57, 233–34; reaction to freeholding, 72
- Platt Amendment, 171
- Political activism, 131. See also Black nationalism; Black Power movement
- Political independence, 15
- Political legitimacy, 280
- Political organizations, 10–11. See also Black Power movement; Fabian Society; Pan-Caribbean movement
- Political parties: in Cuba, 173; and labor unions, 14
- Political reform: and unionization, 12, 13–14
- Political stability, 16
- Political status, 288; of Puerto Rico, 155, 158–62; in Spanish Caribbean, 201–2
- Political systems: development of, 10–11, 15–16
- Political violence, 18
- Politics: and economic conditions, 17
- Polverel, Etienne, 30, 32
- Popular Democratic party (Partido Popular Democrático, PPD): objectives of, 155, 156; and Operation Bootstrap, 157; political reforms of, 157–58; and political status, 161–62; socio-economic reforms of, 155–57
- Population, 3; density, 223
- Poverty, 101–2
- Prebish, Raul, 268
- Puerto Rican Federal Relations Act (1952), 159
- Puerto Rico: agriculture in, 164; and American welfare programs, 165; asimilistas, 195; autonomistas, 195; balance of trade, 150, 151; bureaucracy of, 161; captains-general, 192–93; centrales, 149; constitution of, 158–60; consumerism, 161; economic conditions, 193–94; economic policy, 148–51, 154, 157, 163–65; effects of Great Depression on, 151; effects of U.S. economic policy on, 150–51; emigrants, 220; and Foraker Act, 148; government structure of, 159–60; governor, 158; independence movement, 162–63; industrialization of, 160–61, 162, 164; El Jíbaro, 299–302; labor migration, 151; land policy, 156; Liberal Conservatives, 194; Liberal Reformists, 194–95; needlework industry, 149–50; Operation Bootstrap, 157; plantation economy in, 74–75; plebiscite, 162; political coalitions, 153, 155; political movement, 152–54; political parties, 150, 161, 194; political reforms, 158; political relations with United States, 163; political status debate, 155, 158–62, 162–63, 195–96; Popular Democratic Party, 155, 158; resistance to Americanization, 165–67; and Spanish politics, 194–196; sugar industry, 149; tobacco production, 149; tourism, 157; unemployment, 151–52; unionization in, 150, 160; and U.S. Caribbean policy, 148, 268; women as labor in, 149–50, 160; working conditions, 149
- Quatrième siècle, Le* (Glissant), 326
- Que-Que dance, 106
- Quimboiseur*, 103, 105
- Race: and middle class, 92; and national-

- ism, 298; role in foreign policy, 288–89
- Race relations, 92–95; creole-Indian, 96–98; effects of adult suffrage on, 97; effects of immigration on, 95; in Trinidad, 133
- Racial consciousness, 308–10; influence of U.S. civil rights movement on, 115–16
- Racial discrimination, 92–95, 114–15
- Racial identity: and class, 126; European influences on, 113; and Haitian Revolution, 296; in Jamaica, 111; and nationalism, 304–5. See also Black consciousness; Racial consciousness
- Racial justice, 116–17
- Rastafarian movement, 114; and Black Power, 117
- Reagan, Ronald, 286, 278–79. See also Caribbean Basin Initiative
- Recreation, 106–7
- Redlegs, 89
- Reform movement: and Alejandro de Castro, 189; in Cuba, 188–89
- Regional identity: and Castro Revolution, 333–34
- Regionalism, 284; West Indies solidarity, 286
- Reglamento de Jornaleros*, 59, 77
- Rehistorization, 335–36 (n. 5)
- Reid, V. S., 322–23
- Religion, 104–6; and church membership, 104; in Cuba, 183; religious celebrations, 105–6
- Remittance payments, 210–11, 213, 224. See also Labor migration
- Repatriation, 114. See also Rastafarian movement
- Republican party (Puerto Rico): objectives, 153
- Revivalism, 105
- Revolt of the Masses* (Ortega y Gasset), 311
- Revolts: definition, 135. See also Slave revolts
- Rigaud, André, 32, 38, 39, 40
- Rochambeau, Comte de, 46–47
- Rodney, Walter, 130, 131; and Black Power movement, 117–19; and political consciousness, 118–19; reaction to, 119–21
- Rodó, José Enrique, 311
- Rodway, James, 304
- Roman Catholic church, 136; in Dominican Republic, 199
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 156
- Roumain, Jacques, 319
- Royal Commission (1938–39), 102
- Saco, José Antonio, 336 (n. 11)
- Sagasta, Mateo Praxedes, 195
- Saint Domingue: classes of, 22–24; Colonial Assembly, 26–27, 31; creation of National Assembly (Paris), 26–27; Creoles in, 23–24; declaration of independence, 47; economy, 21–22; and fall of Bastille, 26; importance of to France, 21–22; population of, 22; position of free coloreds in, 22–23; position of whites in, 22; slaves in, 23–24. See also Haiti
- Salkey, Andrew, 326–27
- Sánchez, Luis Rafael, 332–33
- Santana, Pedro, 198–99, 200–201
- Santo Domingo. See Dominican Republic
- Schools, 107–8. See also Education
- Schwarz-Bart, Simone, 332
- Scott, Michael, 304
- Seaga, Edward: election of, 282; and Jamaican economic conditions, 254–55
- Season of Adventure* (Lamming), 325
- Sects, 105. See also Religion

- “Sergeants’ coup” (Suriname), 219
- Sharecropping, 61
- Shearer, Hugh: reaction to Black Power movement, 119–20, 125
- Sir George Williams University Affair, 134, 136, 144 (n. 6)
- Slave population: of British West Indies, 63–64
- Slave revolts: in Cuba, 79–80; and emancipation, 55; in Saint Domingue, 29–31. See also Haitian Revolution; Ten Years’ War
- Slavery: abolition of, 8–9, 55–57; in Cuba, 75–77, 81, 82; demographics of, 7, 64; fugitives from, 24–25; importation of, 53, 205; and labor migration, 205–6; in literature, 297–98, 311–12, 336 (n. 19); living conditions, 205; role of in Ten Years’ War, 190–91; in Saint Domingue, 23–25; and triangular trade, 62–63. See also Slave revolts; Slave trade
- Slave trade, 6–7, 53; abolition of, 54, 56, 63, 64; in British West Indies, 63, 64–65; to Cuba, 75–76; to Puerto Rico, 75–76; role of in sugar production, 63
- Smallholders: economic condition of, 99–100
- Socarrás, Carlos Prío, 175
- Socialist International: targets of, 263
- Socialist party (Puerto Rico): objectives of, 153
- Social mobility, 90–91; in British Windward Islands, 91; and education, 90; and language, 90; of middle class, 91
- Sonthonax, Léger-Félicité, 31; and emancipation, 32–33; return to Saint Domingue, 39, 40. See also Haitian Revolution
- Spain: occupation of Saint Domingue, 33–34, 35–38; Puerto Rican policy, 193; and Puerto Rican politics, 194, 196; relations with Haitian slave leaders, 35–36; rule of Cuba, 186–87; treatment of Dominican Republic, 199
- Spanish-American War: and Cuba, 191–92; and Puerto Rican autonomy, 196; and Spanish colonialism, 170; and U.S. Caribbean policy, 147–48
- Spanish Caribbean: development of nationalism in, 185–86; political status question, 201–2
- Strikes: in British Guiana, 69; by Coolies, 73; during February Revolution, 142; by freedmen, 69
- Sugar industry, 5; and beet sugar, 236; in British West Indies, 63; in Cuba, 175, 180–81, 184 (n. 4); and captains-general, 187; effects of emancipation on, 57–58; and labor migration, 211, 212; modernization of, 57–58; in Puerto Rico, 149; and slave trade, 63, 75–76; and technological development, 237–38; and Ten Years’ War, 189. See also Plantation economy
- Sugar revolutions, 6–7
- Suriname: political emigrants, 218–19
- Syrian/Lebanese: importation of, 95–96. See also Indentured labor
- Tacón, Miguel, 187, 188
- Technological development: and economic development, 238; effects on plantation economy, 237–38. See also Industrialization
- Teller amendment, 191–92
- Tenant farmers, 71
- Tenth International Conference of American States (1954), 263
- Ten Years’ War (1868–78), 79–80, 169, 186; effects on nationalism, 191; and Máximo Gómez, 189; guerrilla warfare in, 189–90; and Antonio Maceo, 189, 190–91; and race relations, 190–91;

- reasons for rebel failure, 190–91; role of freedmen in, 80; and slavery, 190–91; Spanish response to, 190; and U.S. policy toward Cuba, 190. See also Cuba
- Theory and Practice of Creole Grammar* (Thomas), 305
- Third Republic (France), 91
- Thomas, John Jacob: background, 305; and class conflict, 307–8; and creole language, 305–6; response to Froude, 306–9
- Tobacco: in Puerto Rico, 149
- Tobago: economic policy of, 255–56
- Totten, Ashley, 214
- Tourism: development of, 247; political objections to, 251; in Puerto Rico, 157; weakness of, 247, 251–52. See also Economic development
- Trade, 5–6. See also Triangular trade
- Treaty of Ryswick (1697), 197
- Treaty of Tordesillas (1494), 259
- Triangular trade, 62–63
- Trinidad: antiimperialism of, 136–37; Black Power movement in, 132–34; economic policy, 255–56; effects of February Revolution, 143–44; nationalism in, 133–34; People's National Movement, 140–41; race relations in, 93–94, 133
- Trujillo massacre, 215
- Truman, Harry S, 159
- Tugwell, Rexford G., 156
- 26th of July Movement, 177. See also Castro Revolution
- Unemployment, 82, 100, 248; colonial response to, 239; and economic policies, 239–40; and mortality rates, 238–39; and riots, 215
- Unionization: growth of, 12, 13; legalization of, 12–13; and political reforms, 12–14; and riots, 12. See also Labor movement
- United States: acquisition of Puerto Rico, 148, 196; anticommunism, 263–65; Caribbean policy, 147–48, 267–68, 270–71, 272–277, 278–79; centrales, 149; civil rights movement, 115–16; credibility, 277–79, 290–91 (n. 14); and Cuban autonomy, 192; Cuban immigrants, 221–22; Cuban missile crisis (1962), 267–68; development of sugar industry, 211; and economic development, 257; economic policy and political status, 162; effects of immigration on, 219–20; expansionism, 309; Foraker Act, 148; foreign policy, 263–64; Haitian immigrants, 220–21; illegal immigration to, 220; immigration policy, 214, 220; influence on Caribbean literature, 311–12; influence on labor migration, 209–211, 212; invasion of Grenada, 287–88; Jones Act, 148, 152; labor recruitment, 210; Latin American policy, 270; military occupation of Cuba, 170–72, 267; multilateralism, 271–74, 276; OAS relations, 267–68; Puerto Rican economic policy, 148–51, 154, 156, 157, 163–65; Puerto Rican Federal Relations Act, 159; relations with Cuba, 172, 188, 266–68; relations with Dominican Republic, 198–99; relations with Grenada, 285, 286–87; relations with Guatemala, 265–66; relations with Puerto Rico, 152–53, 154, 163; relations with West Indies, 285; role in Ten Years' War, 190; Teller amendment, 191–92; trade, 270; treatment of immigrants, 213. See also Caribbean Basin Initiative; Carter initiative; Multilateralism; Spanish-American War

- U.S. Immigration Act of 1965, 219
- Universal Negro Improvement Association (UNIA), 213. See also Garvey, Marcus
- University of Havana, 9
- Urbanization, 87, 100; in Cuba, 76–77; in Puerto Rico, 160–61
- Viaje a la muchedumbre* (Mir), 327–28
- Villatte, 38, 39
- Violence, 18; in Black Power movement, 125; in February Revolution, 137–38
- Virginius, 190
- Voodoo, 24, 49
- Wage labor, 98, 100
- Wages: alternatives to, 60–61; rates, 99
- Walcott, Derek, 293, 295, 315–16, 326; archetypal symbol in work of, 329; on language, 331–32
- Walrond, Eric, 213–14
- War of independence (Saint Domingue), 45–47
- War of Knives, 41
- War of Restoration, 199
- Waugh, Evelyn, 94
- Wealth: distribution of, 98
- West Indies Federation, 14–15
- Whiteman, Unison, 16
- Whites: and racism, 93–94; of Saint Domingue, 22; as social class, 88, 89, 91
- Whitman, Walt, 328
- Williams, Eric: and Caribbean Commission, 268; response to February Revolution, 140–42
- Williams, N. D., 334
- Women: emigrants, 224; as labor, 99, 100, 149–50, 160; organization of, 150
- Wood, Leonard, 170
- Workers Educational Association, 133
- World War II: effects on labor migration, 215–16
- Yellow fever, 39
- Young, Andrew, 272, 276
- Zayas, Alfredo, 174