

Contents

Acknowledgments.....	xi
Abbreviations of Works by St. Thomas Aquinas	xiii
Translations	xv
Preface	xvii
Introduction	xxi

PART I

CHAPTER 1

Identifying the Challenge: The Problem of Ontotheology and the Via Inventionis for a Modern Thomistic Natural Theology	3
Natural Theology as a Problem in Modernity	3
Vatican I and Aeterni Patris	6
Challenges for Post-Kantian Thomism	10
Heideggerian Ontotheology and Thomistic Analogy	21
The Metaphysical Problem of the Person	27
Via Inventionis for a Thomistic Theological Metaphysics	28

PART II

CHAPTER 2

Knowledge of God as Wisdom according to Aristotle.....	33
The Platonic Background of Aristotle's Protreptic Aspirations	35
Aristotelian Rearticulation of the Platonic Aspirations.....	40
Wisdom in the Metaphysics	45
Aristotelian Theology and Ontotheology	64

CHAPTER 3

Context and Elements of Aquinas's Natural Theology 67

The Christian Theological Context of Aquinas's Natural Theological Reflections	69
Aquinas's Christian Reinterpretation of Aristotelian Physics and Metaphysics.....	76
The Esse /Essence Distinction and the Metaphysics of Creation	81
The Perfection of the Primary Cause	86
Analogical Predication of Names to God	88
Personal Operations Attributed to God.....	94
Aquinas and Ontotheology	96
A Restatement of the Problems.....	98

PART III

CHAPTER 4

Exodus 3:14, the Real Distinction, and Theo-ontology:

The Case of Étienne Gilson	103
Existence and the Critique of Essentialist Metaphysics	105
The Judgment of Existence and the Esse /Essence Distinction.....	109
An Existential Interpretation of the Five Ways	113
Problems with the Esse /Essence Distinction	116
Exodus 3:14 and Theo-ontology	117
Critical Reflections	120
The Judgment of Existence and Realistic Knowing	121
Existence and Essence in Aristotle and Aquinas.....	124
Theo-ontology and Specifically Philosophical Wisdom.....	129
Conclusion	132

CHAPTER 5

The Transcendentals and the Analogy of Being:

The Case of Jacques Maritain	133
Diverse Philosophical Approaches to Reality: The Degrees of Abstraction.....	135
The Judgment of Existence and the Intuition of Being.....	138
The Transcendentals, Intellectus , and Resolutio	141
The Analogy of Being: Proper Proportionality	145

The Being of the Human Person.....	148
Intuitions of a Primary Being and the Five Ways.....	150
Critical Reflections	156
Resolution and Causality	157
Analogical Study of the Causes of Being.....	160
Personalist Metaphysics and Natural Theology.....	166
Conclusion	169

CHAPTER 6

The Human Person as a Being-toward-Truth:

The Case of Karl Rahner	171
Analogia Entis in Maréchal.....	174
Rahnerian Method	179
Presence in the World, Doubt, and Human Sensibility.....	180
Abstraction within the Judgment of Existence	182
Pre-apprehension, Natural Theology, and the Analogia Entis	185
Spirit in the World, and Theological Reflections on the Person	189
Critical Reflections	190
Realist Presuppositions within a Transcendental Deduction	191
Causal Analysis and Secondary Acts.....	194
Conclusion	198

PART IV

CHAPTER 7

From Omega to Alpha: Toward a General Order of Metaphysical Inquiry

Points of Departure: Physics, Metaphysics, and the Proper Object of Metaphysics.....	204
Analogical and Causal Study of Being: Substance and Accidents, Actuality and Potentiality.....	217
The Real Distinction between Existence and Essence	225
Ways toward God: A Posteriori Demonstrations	234
The Human Person as Being toward Ontological Truth and Goodness.....	245
Conclusion	249

CHAPTER 8

Analogia Sapientiae.....251

Negative Theology, and the Real Distinction between Essence and Existence.....255

Causality, Apophaticism, and Analogy.....268

Analogia Sapientiae: God as the Subsistent Wisdom
That Is the Origin of the World274

Sapientia and the Final End of Man.....282

Bibliography291

Index307