

Contents

Abbreviations v

Foreword vii

Preface viii

Chapter 1: A “True and Proper” Sacrifice 1

The Background 2

A Purely Sacramental Sacrifice? 4

The One Sacrifice of Christ 6

The Council of Trent on the Sacrifice of the Mass 8

The Eucharist as a Natural Sacrifice 10

According to the Order of Melchizedek 12

The Debate of 1562 16

Chapter 2: Two Old Testament Models of Sacrifice 26

The Three-Part Model of Sacrifice 29

The Offertory 29

The Priestly Mediation 30

The Meal 30

The Three-Part Structure of the Mass 33

The Argument against the Offertory 35

Chapter 3: The Last Supper and the Early Eucharist 40

The Last Supper as a Communion Sacrifice of Bread and Wine 44

The Last Supper as a Passover Sacrifice 44

The Chronology of the Last Supper 45

The Offertory of the Last Supper 50

Matthew 5:23–24 53

Chapter 4: The Offertory in Tradition	56
The Didache	56
Saint Clement of Rome	57
Saint Justin Martyr	59
The Subsequent History of the Offertory	62
The Decline of the Offertory in the West	67
The Reform of the Offertory after Vatican II	70
Conclusion	75
Chapter 5: The Meal Theory of Sacrifice	78
The Meal Theory of Sacrifice	79
The Three Sacrifices of Israel	85
Chapter 6: The Sacrifice of the Cross	90
The Priestly Mediation	91
The Offertory of the Sacrifice	99
The Meal	103
Chapter 7: The Sacramental Sacrifice	107
One Sacrifice/Many Sacrifices	107
The Natural Sacrifice	111
The Distinction of Priesthoods	111
The Double Offering	112
The Private Mass	114
The Active Participation of the Faithful	117
With Empty Hands?	120
The Sacramental Sacrifice	122
The Offertory	124
The Eucharistic Prayer	127
Communion	130
Conclusion	131