

CONTENTS

---

List of Illustrations xiii

Acknowledgments xvii

Introduction xix

PART ONE The Legal History of the Holocaust and Genocide

1. The Holocaust: A Legal History 3

A. Nazi Germany as a Law-Based State 3

B. The Nazis Come to Power Through Law 5

C. Legal Measures Against Jews in the Reich 7

D. War, Occupation Law, and Ghettoization in Occupied Europe 14

E. Extermination: The Legal Holocaust 21

F. Aftermath 32

2. Naming the Crime: Genocide 33

A. The Historical Background of the Term "Genocide" 33

1. Lemkin's Word 33

2. Genocide at the Nuremberg Trials 35

3. Father of the Genocide Convention 35

B. The Genocide Convention 37

1. Legislative History 39

2. Definition of Genocide 40

3. Actus Reus of Genocide—The Prohibited Acts 41

    Must There Be Actual Physical Destruction? 42

    Must the Destruction Be Systematic? 43

    Must Genocide Involve State Action? 44

- Why Are Only Certain Groups Protected by the Genocide Convention? 45
- Should “Cultural Genocide” Be Considered Genocide? 47
- 4. Mens Rea of Genocide: “With Intent to Destroy, in Whole or in Part” 48
  - The Dolus Specialis (Special Intent) of Genocide 49
  - The Meaning of “in Part” 50
- 5. Genocide-Related Crimes: Conspiracy, Incitement, Attempt, and Complicity 52
  - Conspiracy to Commit Genocide 52
  - Incitement to Commit Genocide 53
  - Attempted Genocide 54
  - Complicity in Genocide 54
- 6. Proving Genocide 56
- 7. Punishment 58
- C. Use and Misuse of Genocide Terminology 59
  - 1. Using and Misusing the G-Word: Why Words Matter 59
  - 2. When Is It Proper to Characterize a Historical Event as a Genocide? 61

PART TWO Legal Reckoning with the Crimes of the Holocaust

- 3. Prosecution of Nazi War Criminals at Nuremberg 69
  - A. International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg 69
    - 1. The Rocky Road to Nuremberg 69
      - The London Conference: Creating the IMT 72
    - 2. The Trial 73
      - The Defendants 74
      - The Defense Attorneys 75
      - The Judges 75
      - The Trial Begins 77
      - The Prosecution Case 78
      - Live Witnesses 79
      - The Defense Case 80
      - The Verdicts 82
      - Post-Conviction 83
  - 3. Major Criticisms of the IMT 83
    - Ex Post Facto, or the Principle Against Retroactivity (Nullum Crimen Sine Lege) 84
    - Victor’s Justice, or “The Vanquished Are at the Mercy of the Victor” 85
    - The “So You Too” Defense (Tu Quoque) 85

4. The Holocaust at Nuremberg 85
- At Trial 85
  - Closing Statements 88
  - Judgment 89
- B. The Later Nuremberg Trials 90
- 1. The Twelve NMT Trials 91
  - 2. “Noel, Noel, What the Hell” 103
  - 3. Legacy of the NMT 105
4. National Prosecutions of Nazi War Criminals 109
- A. Prosecutions in Germany 109
    - 1. The Ulm Einsatzgruppen Trial 113
      - The Defendants 115
      - The Trial 117
      - Closing Statements 119
      - The Verdicts 119
      - Legacy of the Trial 120
      - The Fall of Erwin Schüle 121
    - 2. The Frankfurt Auschwitz Trial 121
      - The Defendants 122
      - The Trial 123
      - The Verdicts 124
      - Legacy of the Trial 125
  - B. The Trial of Adolf Eichmann in Israel 126
    - 1. Eichmann Before Jerusalem—The Nazi Era 128
      - Eichmann’s Escape and Capture 130
    - 2. Eichmann in Jerusalem—The Trial 131
      - The Strange Law Used to Prosecute Eichmann 132
      - Trial Preparation 133
      - The Trial Begins 134
      - The Prosecution Case 136
      - The Defense Strategy 139
      - The Verdict and Appeal 140
    - 3. Legacies of the Trial 142
  - C. Hunting for Nazis in America 145
  - D. Retrospective 149
5. Civil Litigation for the Financial Crimes of the Holocaust 153
- A. Stealing from the Jews 153
  - B. Returning What Was Stolen 155
    - 1. Restitution by the Allies in Occupied Germany 155

2. German Reparations to Israel and Survivors 158
3. Holocaust Restitution in the 1990s—A Measure of Justice Fifty Years Later 161
  - Why the United States? 161
  - What Did the Lawsuits Accomplish? 163
4. Holocaust Restitution in the Twenty-First Century: The French Railroad Settlement 165
- C. Why Didn't the Holocaust Restitution Model Work for Other Historical Atrocities? 169
  1. Herero Genocide Litigation 169
  2. Litigation Against Japanese Industry Arising Out of the Second World War 170
  3. South African Apartheid Litigation 174
  4. African-American Reparations Litigation 175
  5. Armenian Genocide-Era Litigation 177
  6. Shutting the Door on Universal Jurisdiction: The 2013 Kiobel Supreme Court Decision 179
6. Holocaust Denial and the Law 183
  - A. What Is Holocaust Denial? 183
  - B. Criminalizing Speech: Holocaust and Genocide Denial Laws in Europe 187
    1. Germany 188
    2. Austria 193
    3. France 194
    4. European Union-wide Law 195
  - C. Should Holocaust Denial Be a Crime? 197
    1. The "Yes" Arguments 197
    2. The "No" Arguments 200
    3. Which Way Is Best? 204
  - D. The Future of Denial Laws 206
7. The Impact of the Holocaust on Post-Holocaust Legal Philosophy 211
  - A. Carl Schmitt and the State of Exception 212
  - B. Karl Loewenstein and Postwar Germany's Militant Democracy 217
  - C. Gustav Radbruch and the Hart-Fuller Debate: What Is Law? 220
  - D. The State of Exception After 9/11 225

PART THREE The Holocaust as a Catalyst for Modern International Criminal Justice

8. Nuremberg's Legacy: The UN Tribunals for Yugoslavia and Rwanda and the International Criminal Court 235
- A. Building a Better Nuremberg 237
  - B. Creating the Case Law of Genocide 243
    - 1. Joint Criminal Enterprise and Genocide 244
    - 2. Public Incitement to Commit Genocide 246
    - 3. Command Responsibility and Genocide 247
  - C. Criticisms of the ICTs 251
    - 1. Slow Start 251
    - 2. Inconsistent Jurisprudence 252
    - 3. Inconsistent Quality of Jurists 252
    - 4. Punitive Tendency 252
    - 5. Cost and Pace of Trials 253
    - 6. The Ivory Tower Syndrome 254
    - 7. Failure to Prevent 255
  - D. Nuremberg and the International Criminal Court 256
9. Prosecuting Genocide 265
- A. International Prosecutions 265
    - 1. ICTR Prosecutions 265
    - 2. ICTY Prosecutions 267
    - 3. ICC Prosecutions 269
  - B. Domestic Prosecutions 271
    - 1. Nikola Jorgić: The First Person Convicted of Genocide? 273
    - 2. Rwandan Genocidaires 277
- Conclusion: Can Genocide Be Prevented? 281
- Notes 295
- Index 355