

Contents

Special Issue: Complex transformations – gender, religious subjectivities and the new politics of belonging

Articles

- 291–294 Introduction: complex transformations – gender, religious subjectivities and the new politics of belonging
Máiréad Enright and Siobhán Mullally
- 295–317 The beginning of the sharpness: loyalty, citizenship and Muslim divorce practice
Máiréad Enright
- 318–342 Interrogating religion: Christian/secular values, citizenship and racial upliftment in governmental education policy
Suhraiya Jivraj
- 343–365 Multiculturalism meets privatisation: the case of faith-based arbitration
Audrey Macklin
- 366–385 Political liberalism and French national identity in the wake of the face-veiling law
Eoin Daly
- 386–410 Religion, custom and gender: marital law reform in South Africa
Catherine Albertyn
- 411–428 Retreat from multiculturalism: community cohesion, civic integration and the disciplinary politics of gender
Siobhán Mullally
- Review essay
- 429–436 ASBOs as assurance in the post-liberal era
Stuart Waiton