

Contents

Introduction	I
--------------	---

I

The Struggle for Civil Rights

1. Thurgood Marshall: The Law's Promise	19
2. William Brennan: A Life Lived Twice	31
3. John Doar: To Stand for What Is Right	49
4. Burke Marshall: A Reluctant Hero	65

II

Legal Education and the Culture of Liberalism

5. Harry Kalven: A Tenth Justice	81
6. Eugene Rostow: The Law according to Yale	91
7. Arthur Leff: Making Coffee and Other Duties of Citizenship	107
8. Catharine MacKinnon: Feminism in the Classroom	117
9. Joseph Goldstein: The Scholar as Sovereign	129

III

The Fate of the Law

10. Carlos Nino: The Death of a Public Intellectual	139
11. Robert Cover: Cases and Materials	153
12. Morton Horwitz: Timeless Truths	163
13. Aharon Barak: Law Is Everywhere	175

Coda

Toiling in Eden	189
Sources and Acknowledgments	197
Index	203