

Contents

Abbreviations	8
Contents	11
Acknowledgements	15
Introduction	17
Part I: A History of Human Dignity	23
Chapter 1. Human Dignity in the Cosmo-centric Context	29
Aristotle and the Concept of Dignity.....	30
Did Aristotle have an Understanding of Human Dignity?.....	43
Cicero's Cosmopolitanism.....	45
Cicero's Fragmented Understanding of Human Dignity.....	53
The Classical Context and Human Dignity.....	54
Chapter 2. Human Dignity in the Christo-centric Context	59
Christian Romans.....	60
De dignitate conditionis humanae .....	63
Grosseteste's Microcosmism.....	69
Aquinas's Account of Personal Dignity.....	74
Women's Voices.....	79
Human Dignity in the Christo-centric Context.....	81
Chapter 3. Human Dignity in the Modern Context	85
Pico's Oratio de dignitate hominis .....	87
The Beginnings of International Law.....	90
Pascal's Thoughts .....	93
Hobbes' Leviathan .....	94
'Sophia's' Defence of Women's Rights.....	95
Hume and the 'Advantage to Virtue'.....	97
Kant's Insistence on Rational Autonomy.....	98
De Gouge's Droits de la Femme et de la Citoyenne .....	106
The Modern Context and Human Dignity.....	109

Chapter 4. Human Dignity in the Contemporary Context	113
Wollstonecraft's Vindications .....	115
The Inheritance from the Revolution.....	119
The United Nations.....	122
Theoretical Reinforcements.....	136
What is Human Dignity?.....	138
The Contemporary Context and the Idea of Human Dignity	145

Part II: Human Dignity as such 151

Chapter 5. A Phenomenological Account of the Essence of Human Dignity	154
The Linguistic Essence of Human Dignity.....	157
The Essence of Human Dignity as a Value.....	162
Essentiality and Essence.....	165
Other Phenomenological Characterisations.....	170

Chapter 6. Aristotle on what it would be for Human Dignity to be what it is	173
Aristotle's Account of Essence.....	173
Scientific Enquiry and Human Dignity According to Aristotle.....	178
Of which Category?.....	181
Dignity as a Quality and Human Dignity.....	185
Conclusion.....	188

Chapter 7. Aquinas on the Essence of Human Dignity	191
Aquinas' Understanding of Essence.....	191
Which Kind of Essence for Human Dignity?.....	195
Two Accounts of the Person: is Dignity after all Substantial?	197
Imago Dei and Human Dignity.....	198
Faith as Commitment to Human Dignity.....	201
Conclusion.....	203

Chapter 8. The Essence of Human Dignity according to Kant	205
Kant's Theory of Essence.....	205
The Transcendental Location of Virtue and Human Dignity.	212
Judging about Ends.....	215
Conclusion.....	219

Conclusion to Part II	221
Part III: The Constitution of Human Dignity	223
Chapter 9. Constitution	226
Constitutional Analysis.....	228
Constitution and Motivation.....	231
The Constitution of Community.....	233
The Constitution of Human Dignity as a Criterion for Justice.....	237
Chapter 10. The Constitution of the Human Being	242
The Constitution of the I.....	243
The Living Body.....	244
The Contribution of Feelings to the Constitution of the Individual.....	246
The Foreign Living Body.....	247
The Constitution of the Person.....	250
The Type of the Human Person.....	252
The Type of the Human Being.....	255
Chapter 11. The Constitution of Values	257
The Investigation of Values in Motivational Structures.....	261
The Objectivity of Values.....	262
Values and Mental Energy.....	263
The Role of Values in Constituting Community.....	264
The Empty Grasp of Values.....	265
Motivation and Rationality.....	267
The Height of Values.....	270
The Height of the Value of Human Dignity and its being felt in Love.....	273
Chapter 12. The Constitution of the Fundamental Value of the Human Being	275
The Value of the I.....	275
The Value of the Person.....	277
The Additional Value of the Other Person.....	278
The Value of the Type of the Human Being.....	279
The Value of the Human Being.....	281
The Value of Intersubjective (Human) Experience.....	281
The Value of the Human Body.....	282

The Fundamentality of the Value of the Human Being in its Constitutive Elements.....	283
Recognition and its Motivation.....	285

Conclusion	291
-------------------	-----

Bibliography	293
Index of Names	316
Glossary and Index of Phenomenological Terms	321