

Contents

I

CONCERNS AND DIRECTIONS

- 1 What is the concern? 3
- 2 The basic four, 10
 - Preventive conditioning, 11
 - Immediate injury care, 12
 - Follow-up care, 12
 - Supportive techniques, 12

II

WHY DANCE INJURIES?

- 3 Body structure and composition, 17
 - Muscles, 17
 - The skeleton and its articulations, 19
- 4 Posture, 25
 - Stability vs. instability, 25
 - Good standing posture, 28
 - Examining posture, 32
 - Foot examination, 35
 - Postural problems in dance, 39

- Foot malalignment and structural problems, 51
- Morphologic variations in female and male dancers, 56

5 The dancer's body, 58

- Situations that may cause injury, 59
- The dancer's environment, 75

III

MAJOR FACTORS IN INJURY PREVENTION

6 Preparing the body to prevent injury, 79

- Strength, 79
- Flexibility, 80
- Managing muscular soreness and stiffness, 82
- Stamina, 83
- Warming up and cooling down, 84
- Special preventive exercises, 85

7 Nutrition, 113

- Food categories, 113
- Food supplementation, 115
- Food routines, 116
- Weight control, 116
- Heat stress, 121
- Energy aids, 123

8 Psychological factors, 125

- Accident-proneness, 125
- Tension and dance, 126
- Staleness, 127

IV

PRINCIPLES OF INJURY CARE

9 Evaluating physical trauma in dance, 131

- Inflammation and healing, 131
- Acute injuries, 132
- Chronic injuries, 134
- Injury inspection and evaluation, 135
- Shock, 135

- 10 Managing the injury, 137
 Immediate care, 137
 Follow-up care, 138
 Exercise and the injury, 151
 Supportive and protective techniques, 152
 Medical care, 160

V

MUSCULOSKELETAL CONDITIONS COMMON TO DANCE: THEIR PREVENTION, RECOGNITION, EVALUATION, AND MANAGEMENT

- 11 Compression and friction problems, 165

Contusions, 165
 Chronic compression problems, 172
 Chondromalacia, 175
 Calluses, 175
 Friction blisters, 177
 Corns, 179
 Ingrown toenail, 180

- 12 Strains, 181

Acute strains, 181
 Chronic strains, 200

- 13 Sprains, dislocations, and fractures, 207

Sprains, 207
 Dislocations, 223
 Joint degeneration, 225
 Fractures, 225

Epilogue, 226

References, 227

Appendix: Suggested dance injury supplies, 229

Glossary, 230