

Guide to Childcraft

Contents

Section One: Growth and Development	11
The New Baby: Birth to 18 months	13
Portrait of the baby	14
Caring for the baby	15
Sleeping	16
Bathing	17
Diapers	17
Feeding the baby	18
Growth and development	21
Health and safety	27
Shots	28
Common illnesses and conditions	28
Accidents	29
Toys	29
Common concerns	30
Spoiling	30
Setting limits	30
Toilet training	30
You and your baby	31
The Toddler: 18 months to 3 years	33
Portrait of the toddler	34
Motor abilities and development	34
Growth	34
Parent vs. toddler	36
Typical day	36

The toddler's education	38
The role of play	38
Toys	38
Learning to talk	39
Storytelling	40
Learning by imitation	40
Health and safety	41
Accidents	41
Common conditions and infectious diseases	42
Preventive health care	43
Teeth, feet, eyes, and ears	43
Common concerns	44
Toilet training	44
Temper tantrums	45
No! No! No!	46
Jealousy toward a new baby	46
You and your toddler	47
The Preschooler: 3 to 5 years	49
Portrait of the preschooler	50
Social development	51
Language development	51
The preschooler's education	53
Trips	53
Stories	54
Enriching the preschooler's play	54
Television and the preschooler	55
Schools for the preschooler	56
Common concerns	57
Dawdling	57
Fears	57
Toilet-talk	58
Discipline	59
Health and safety	61
Dental care	61
Accidents	61
You and your preschooler	63

Contents

The School-Age Child: 5 to 8 years	65
Portrait of the school-age child	66
Social development	66
Motor development	70
Other physical characteristics	70
School days	71
Starting school	71
Learning in the kindergarten-primary grades	71
The parent and the school	74
Health and safety	75
Safety	75
Common illnesses and conditions	76
Common concerns	77
Sex differences	77
Age differences	77
Masculinity, femininity	78
School problems	81
You and your school-age child	83
The Preteen: 8 to 13 years	85
Portrait of the preteen	86
Restlessness	87
Forgetfulness	88
Daydreaming	88
Success and praise	89
The preteen and “the gang”	90
Parents become “The Adults”	90
Secrecy	92
Picking up the dare	92
Face-saving	93
Toughness	93
Preteen love	94
Organized groups and school	95
Organized groups	95
The preteen and school	95
The preteen’s health	97
Height and weight	97
Other signs of maturity	97
Sex development in girls	97

Sex development in boys	98
Dental care	98
Common concerns	99
You and your preteen	100
Section Two: For Special Consideration	101
Adoption	102
Behavioral disorders in children	106
Children and television	110
Choosing a baby sitter	114
Day care	116
Divorce	122
The drug problem	124
Explaining death to a child	127
The gifted child	130
Growth	132
Latchkey children	138
Learning disabilities in children	141
The mentally retarded child	143
Moving	146
The physically handicapped child	148
Sex and your child	151
Traveling with children	153
The working mother	154
Agencies and organizations interested in the welfare of children	157
Books for parents	165
Section Three: Medical Guide	167
Caring for a sick child	168
Medical articles	170
Section Four: Learning with Childcraft	313
Getting to Know Childcraft	314
Organization of Childcraft	318
Introducing Childcraft in the home	321
Curriculum enrichment guides	334
Index to Childcraft	348