

Cancer and Metastasis Reviews

Volume 28 · Numbers 3/4 · December 2009

Special Issue: Urological Cancers

Guest Editors: David J. McConkey and Colin P. N. Dinney

Biographies 265

Preface

D.J. McConkey · C. Dinney 267

Genome-wide association studies of bladder cancer risk: a field synopsis of progress and potential applications

X. Wu · M.A.T. Hildebrandt · D.W. Chang 269

Biology of urothelial tumorigenesis: insights from genetically engineered mice

X.-R. Wu 281

Urothelial carcinoma: Stem cells on the edge

W.D. Brandt · W. Matsui · J.E. Rosenberg · X. He · S. Ling · E.M. Schaeffer · D.M. Berman 291

Phosphatidylinositol-3 kinase (PI3K) pathway activation in bladder cancer

M.A. Knowles · F.M. Platt · R.L. Ross · C.D. Hurst 305

Strategies for molecular expression profiling in bladder cancer

A.P. Mitra · C.C. Bartsch · R.J. Cote 317

Pathways of metastasis suppression in bladder cancer

N. Said · D. Theodorescu 327

Role of epithelial-to-mesenchymal transition (EMT) in drug sensitivity and metastasis in bladder cancer

D.J. McConkey · W. Choi · L. Marquis · F. Martin · M.B. Williams · J. Shah · R. Svatek · A. Das · L. Adam · A. Kamat · A. Siefker-Radtke · C. Dinney 335

The role of neutrophils and TNF-related apoptosis-inducing ligand (TRAIL) in bacillus Calmette–Guérin (BCG) immunotherapy for urothelial carcinoma of the bladder

H.M. Rosevear · A.J. Lightfoot · M.A. O'Donnell · T.S. Griffith 345

Emerging targeted therapies for bladder cancer: a disease waiting for a drug

S.J. Dovedi · B.R. Davies 355

NON-THEMATIC REVIEW

MicroRNA function in cancer: oncogene or a tumor suppressor?

S.K. Shenouda · S.K. Alahari 369
