

Contents

List of tables	ix
Notes on contributors	x
PART I
Introduction	1
1 Religion and spirituality in social work: creating an international dialogue Beth R. Crisp	3
PART II
Regional perspectives	15
2 Australia: it's complicated Beth R. Crisp	17
3 Korean social welfare's approach to spiritual diversity Edward R. Canda, Jungrim Moon and Kyung Mee Kim	26
4 The absent presence of religion and spirituality in mental health social work in Northern Ireland Patricia Carlisle	35
5 Spirituality and religion in Maltese social work practice: a taboo? Claudia Psaila	43
PART III
Religious and spiritual traditions	53
6 The constructed 'Indian' and Indigenous sovereignty: social work practice with Indigenous peoples Arielle Dylan and Bartholemew Smallboy	55

7	The sacred in traditional African spirituality: creating synergies with social work practice Raisuyah Bhagwan	64
8	Studying social work: dilemmas and difficulties of Ultra-Orthodox women Nehami Baum	73
9	Western Buddhism and social work Caroline Humphrey	81
10	Achieving dynamic balancing: application of Daoist principles into social work practice Celia Hoi Yan Chan, Xiao-Wen Ji and Cecilia Lai Wan Chan	90
11	Celtic spirituality: exploring the fascination across time and place Laura Béres	100
12	Material spirituality: challenging Gnostic tendencies in contemporary understandings of religion and spirituality in social work Russell Whiting	108
13	Social work with Muslim communities: treading a critical path over the crescent moon Sara Ashencaen Crabtree	118
14	Religious and spiritual perspectives of social work among the Palestinians Alean Al-Krenawi	128
PART IV
Faith-based service provision		137
15	Partners in service and justice: Catholic social welfare and the social work profession Linda Plitt Donaldson	139
16	Residential childcare in faith-based institutions Mark Smith	149
17	The background and roles of The Salvation Army in providing social and faith-based services Michael Wolf-Branigin and Katie Hirtz Bingaman	157
18	South Asian gurus, their movements and social service Samta P. Pandya	164

- 19 Reclaiming compassion: Auschwitz, Holocaust remembrance and social work 173
John G. Fox
- 20 At a crossroads: the Church of Sweden and its role as a welfare provider in a changing Swedish welfare state 182
Eva Jeppsson Grassman

PART VReligion and spirituality across the lifespan 191

- 21 Spirituality: the missing component in trauma therapy across the lifespan 193
Heather Marie Boynton and Jo-Ann Vis
- 22 Spirituality as a protective factor for children and adolescents 202
Linda Benavides
- 23 Responding to child abuse in religious contexts 210
Philip Gilligan
- 24 Queer meaning 220
Mark Henrickson
- 25 From entanglement to equanimity: an application of a holistic healing approach into social work practice with infertile couples 228
Yao Hong and Celia Hoi Yan Chan
- 26 Life's end journey: social workers in palliative care 237
Martha Wiebe
- 27 Social work and suffering in end-of-life care: an arts-based approach 245
Irene Renzenbrink

PART VISocial work practice 255

- 28 Religious literacy in public and professional settings 257
Adam Dinham
- 29 Spirituality and sexuality: exploring tensions in everyday relationship-based practice 265
Janet Melville-Wiseman

Contents

30	Mindfulness for professional resilience James Lucas	274
31	Spiritual competence: the key to effective practice with people from diverse religious backgrounds David R. Hodge	282
32	A spiritual approach to social work practice Ann M. Carrington	291
33	Critical spirituality and social work practice Fiona Gardner	300
34	Spiritually informed social work within conflict-induced displacement Malabika Das	309
35	Holistic arts-based social work Diana Coholic	320
36	Ethical principles for transitioning to a renewable energy economy in an era of climate change Mishka Lysack	329
37	The spiritual dimensions of ecosocial work in the context of global climate change Fred H. Besthorn and Jon Hudson	338
38	Ultimate concerns and human rights: how can practice sensitive to spirituality and religion expand and sharpen social work capacity to challenge social injustice? Fran Gale and Michael Dudley	347
39	Addressing spiritual bypassing: issues and guidelines for spiritually sensitive practice Michael J. Sheridan	358
	PART VII
	Conclusion	369
40	Developing the agenda for religion and spirituality in social work Beth R. Crisp	371
	Index	379