

Table of Contents

Thies Gundlach Preface	9
James Puglisi Introduction	11
1. Prelude and Openings
Margot Käßmann The Reformation as a challenge	17
2. Penance in Historical-Theological Perspective
Angelo Maffei Historical-theological questions about the Christian experience of forgiveness.....	39
Alessandra Costanzo Forgiveness and the history of Catholic penance	55
Theodor Dieter From Persecution to Reconciliation. Lutherans and Mennonites in Dialogue.....	73
3. The Penance in Systematic-Anthropological Perspective
Andrea Grillo Pardon, conversion, and penance in the two Churches: theology, praxis, disciplines.....	95
Gunda Werner Mercy and justice in the context of the sacrament of penance – a critical re-reading of contemporary semantics from the perspective of the hermeneutics of dogma	111

Elmar Salmann

Reconciliation with finite life as an act of freedom.....133

Jörg Lauster

The anthropology of Pardon.

Requirements, subjects, and modes of reconciliation.....139

4. The Penance in Liturgical-Sacramental Perspective

Gordon W. Lathrop

How Forgiveness is Spoken among Lutheran Christians153

Gail Ramshaw

Images for Forgiveness163

Teresa Berger

The Manifold Languages of Reconciliation in a Digital Age.....169

Päivi Jussila

Contemporary Language in the Practice of Penance in Finnish Liturgical Context.....183

5. Conclusions and Perspectives

Susan K. Wood

From Conflict to Communion?191

Kurt Cardinal Koch

Ecumenical remembrance of the Reformation.....205

Contributors209