

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Part One Diagnostic Considerations
1 Structural Diagnosis	3
2 The Structural Interview	27
3 Differential Diagnosis in Adolescence	52
4 Personality Disorders in Old Age	68
5 Problems in the Classification of Personality Disorders	77
Part Two Treatment of Borderline Personalities
6 Expressive Psychotherapy	97
7 Transference Management in Expressive Psychotherapy	112
8 Expressive Psychotherapy with Adolescents	131
9 Supportive Psychotherapy	147
10 Indications and Contraindications for Psychoanalytically Based Treatment Modalities	165
Part Three Narcissistic Personalities: Clinical Theory and Treatment
11 Contemporary Psychoanalytic Approaches to Narcissism	179
12 Technical Strategies in the Treatment of Narcissistic Personalities	197
13 Character Analysis	210
14 Self, Ego, Affects, and Drives	227
Part Four Severe Regressions: Diagnosis and Treatment
15 Stalemates in Treatment	241
16 Diagnosis and Clinical Management of Patients with Suicide Potential	254
	vii

17	Countertransference, Transference Regression, and the Incapacity to Depend	264
18	Clinical Aspects of Severe Superego Pathology	275
19	Paranoid Regression and Malignant Narcissism	290
Part Five Hospital Treatment
20	Contrasting Philosophies of Hospital Treatment for Severe Psychopathology	315
21	The Therapeutic Community Model of Hospital Treatment for Severe Psychopathology	330
22	Long-Term Hospital Treatment of Severe Borderline and Narcissistic Pathology	343
	References	359
	Index	375