

Table of Contents

ACRONYMS AND ABBREVIATIONS 7

RISING TO THE GLOBAL CHALLENGE: PARTNER- SHIP FOR REDUCING WORLD POVERTY

Policy Statement by the DAC High Level Meeting upon endorsement of the DAC Guidelines on Poverty Reduction, Paris, 25-26 April 2001 9

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY 15

Delivering on the global goals for reducing poverty: a call to action 15

Implementing the DAC 21st century strategy 16

Common concepts and approaches for under- standing and addressing poverty 18

Forging effective poverty reduction partnerships 20

Frameworks and instruments for country programming 23

Policy coherence matters 25

Changing the way we think and act 26

Achieving our goals 28

GENERAL INTRODUCTION 31

Poverty in a global perspective 31

A renewed commitment throughout the international system to fighting poverty 32

An overview of the DAC Guidelines on Poverty Reduction 32

The role and purpose of the Guidelines 33

How to use the Guidelines 34

1. CONCEPTS AND APPROACHES 37

Introduction 37

What is poverty? 37

The widening meaning of poverty 37

Defining poverty: the core dimensions 38

Poverty links with gender and environment 40

Who are the poor? 41

How can poverty be measured and monitored? 41

Why does poverty persist? 43

Which policy actions are required? 44

Pro-poor economic growth: pace and quality 44

Empowerment, rights and pro-poor governance 46

Basic social services for human development 47

Human security: reducing vulnerability and managing shocks 48

Mainstreaming gender and enhancing gender equality 48

Mainstreaming environmental sustainability
using sustainable livelihood approaches 49

Conclusion 50

2. FORGING PARTNERSHIPS FOR REDUCING POVERTY 55

Introduction 55

Fundamental principles governing poverty reduction partnerships 55

The challenges posed by working in partnership 57

What does it take to establish good poverty reduction partnerships? 57

Gauging commitment and assessing partnership performance 58

Strategic approaches for overall development assistance allocation and programming decisions 60

The need to allocate more resources to the poorest countries and to the poorest in other developing countries 60

Supporting sound national strategies for reducing poverty 60

The role of development co-operation in different country contexts 60

Dealing with dilemma situations 62

Helping partners to develop sound national poverty reduction strategies 63

Policy dialogue – a key locus of partner interaction 63

Agency support for national anti-poverty strategies 64

Strengthening the empirical foundations of poverty reduction strategies 64

Collaborating with other partners 65

Supporting national poverty reduction strategies through better aid co-ordination 67

Priority actions for the bilateral community 68

3. FRAMEWORKS AND INSTRUMENTS FOR COUNTRY PROGRAMMING 71

Introduction 71

The evolving partner country strategy framework 71

Country-level strategic development frameworks 71

Country-led poverty reduction strategy processes 72

National budgets and public expenditure reviews 72

Medium-term fiscal reviews 73

Development agency country strategies 73

Policy areas for poverty-focused co-operation 74

Key instruments of financial and technical co-operation 76

Programme aid 76

Sector support 77

Area-based approaches 79

Project support 80

Poverty-focused support and targeted interventions 82

Technical co-operation for capacity development 83

Special focus instruments 84

Debt relief 84

Assistance for conflict prevention and humanitarian aid 85

Support for regional co-operation 85

Conclusion 86

4. TOWARDS POLICY COHERENCE FOR POVERTY REDUCTION 89

Introduction 89

Globalisation and policy coherence 90

How can policy coherence be enhanced? 91

Lessons from experience in OECD countries 93

Policy areas 95

International trade and foreign direct investment 96

International finance 97

Food and agriculture 98

Natural resources and environmental sustainability 99

Social issues 100

Governance and conflict 101

Annex. AN ILLUSTRATIVE CHECKLIST ON POLICY COHERENCE FOR POVERTY REDUCTION 103

Why focus coherence efforts on poverty reduction? 103

Why a checklist? 104

Making policy coherence work 104

An illustrative checklist - a tool for governments in seeking to promote policy coherence for poverty reduction 105

5. INSTITUTIONAL CHANGE AND DEVELOPMENT FOR MAINSTREAMING POVERTY REDUCTION, PARTNERSHIP AND POLICY COHERENCE 109

Introduction 109

Why look inside our own institutions? 109

Getting definitions and concepts right 110

Making sense of diverse institutional set-ups 113

The way ahead: mainstreaming the poverty reduction agenda throughout the agency 115

The role of agency leadership: vision, commitment and creating a culture of change 115

Possible action points 116

Retooling institutional systems and processes 116

Possible action points 116

New capacities and skill requirements 116

Possible action points 117

Structures 117

Possible action points 118

Aligning Human Resource Management practices with the poverty reduction goal 119

Performance management and incentives 119

Possible action points 120

Learning and Training 120

Possible action points 121

The way ahead: working as partners 121

Decentralisation 121

Possible action points 123

Reducing the burdens agencies create for their partners 123

Possible action points 123

The way ahead: improving institutional capacity to promote policy coherence 124

Possible action points 125

Conclusion 125

Appendix. MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS (MDGs) 127