

Contents

9 Acknowledgments
13 Preface
17 Overview:
Poverty and Inequality Block Progress
A Growing Economic Divide	18
Diseases of Poverty and Wealth	19
Poverty and Armed Conflict	20
The Inequities of Climate Change	21
Communication Gaps	21
Standing Apart:
The United States and Africa	22
Bridging the Divides	23

PART ONE: Key Indicators

27 Food Trends		55 Transportation and Communications Trends
Grain Production Drops	28	Vehicle Production Inches Up	56
Meat Production and Consumption Grow	30	Bicycle Production Seesaws	58
33 Energy and Atmosphere Trends		Communications Networks Expand	60
Fossil Fuel Use Up	34	Semiconductor Sales Rebound Slightly	62
Nuclear Power Rises	36	65 Health and Social Trends
Wind Power's Rapid Growth Continues	38	Population Growth Slows	66
Carbon Emissions and Temperature Climb	40	HIV/AIDS Pandemic Spreads Further	68
43 Economic Trends		Cigarette Production Dips Slightly	70
Economic Growth Inches Up	44	73 Military Trends
Foreign Debt Declines	46	Violent Conflicts Continue to Decline	74
Advertising Spending Stays Nearly Flat	48	Peacekeeping Expenditures Down Slightly	76
Tourism Growing But Still Shaky	50
World Heritage Sites Rising Steadily . .	52

PART TWO: Special Features

81 Environment Features

Birds in Decline	82
Small Islands Threatened by Sea Level Rise	84

87 Economy Features

Rich-Poor Divide Growing	88
Gap in CEO-Worker Pay Widens	90
Severe Weather Events on the Rise	92

95 Resource Economics Features

High Farm Subsidies Persist	96
Harvesting of Illegal Drugs Remains High	98

101 Health and Social Features

Number of Refugees Drops	102
Alternative Medicine Gains Popularity	104

Maternal Deaths Reflect Inequities ...	106
Consumption Patterns Contribute to Mortality	108
Orphans Increase Due to AIDS Deaths	110

113 Military and Governance Features

Corruption Thwarts Development ...	114
International Criminal Court Starts Work	116
Military Expenditures on the Rise ...	118
Resource Wars Plague Developing World	120

123 Notes

150 The Vital Signs Series