

Contents

Acknowledgements vii

Preface viii

Introduction 1

1 Introduction 2

2 Rich and poor 8

Part one: Aid and what it is about 15

3 Questions about aid 16

4 Development 23

5 Types of aid 29

6 The major western donors 38

7 Communist aid 45

8 OPEC and Arab aid 52

9 Multilateral donors 59

10 A typical donor – Britain 72

11 Kenya – a selected recipient 80

12 Private investment 86

13 Non-government organizations 94

14 Why aid is given 100

15 The major recipients 107

16 Why recipients take aid 115

17 The case of Somalia 122

Part two:

The philosophy of rich and poor relations 129

18 Problems and attitudes 130

19 Agricultural policies and food aid 141

20 A new international economic order 149

21 Arguments for aid 157

22 Arguments against aid 163

Conclusion 169

Select bibliography 173

Index 175