

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Contributors	ix
Introduction
1 Engaging Superdiversity: The Poiesis-Infrastructures Nexus and Language Practices in Combinatorial Spaces	3
Karel Arnaut, Martha Sif Karrebæk and Massimiliano Spotti
2 Superdiverse Times and Places: Media, Mobility, Conjunctures and Structures of Feeling	25
Piia Varis
3 Chronotopes, Scales and Complexity in the Study of Language in Society	47
Jan Blommaert
Classrooms and Schools
4 'Taking up Speech' in an Endangered Language: Bilingual Discourse in a Heritage Language Classroom	65
Robert Moore
5 Rye Bread for Lunch, Lasagne for Breakfast: Enregisterment, Classrooms and National Food Norms in Superdiversity	90
Martha Sif Karrebæk
Youth Contact Zones
6 'You Black Black': Polycentric Norms for the Use of Terms Associated with Ethnicity	123
Janus Spindler Møller

7	Social Status Relations and Enregisterment: Integrated Speech in Copenhagen Lian Malai Madsen	147
8	Languaging and Normativity on Facebook Andreas Stæhr	170
Mercantile Spaces
9	Magic Marketing: Performing Grassroots Literacy Cécile Vigouroux	199
10	Superdiversity and a London Multilingual Call Centre Johanna Woydack	220
Nation-states
11	Superdiversity From Within: The Case of Ethnicity in Indonesia Zane Goebel	251
12	'Designer Immigrant' Students in Singapore: Challenges for Linguistic Human Rights in a Globalising World Lu Jiqun Luke	277
13	Citizenship, Securitization and Suspicion in UK ESOL Policy Kamran Khan	303
	Index	321