

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Preface	ix
1 Ethnography as Counter-hegemony: Remarks on Epistemology and Method	1
2 Obituary: Dell H. Hymes (1927–2009)	10
3 Ethnography and Democracy: Hymes' Political Theory of Language	15
4 Ethnopoetics as Functional Reconstruction: Dell Hymes' Narrative View of the World	26
5 Grassroots Historiography and the Problem of Voice: Tshibumba's Histoire du Zaïre	42
6 Historical Bodies and Historical Space	62
7 Semiotic and Spatial Scope: Toward a Materialist Semiotics	77
8 Pierre Bourdieu and Language in Society	87
9 Combining Surveys and Ethnographies in the Study of Rapid Social Change	99
10 Data Sharing as Entextualization Practice	112
11 Chronotopes, Scales and Complexity in the Study of Language in Society	130
12 Marxism and Urban Culture	143
13 On Scope and Depth in Linguistic Ethnography: A Commentary	149
References	156
Index	167