

CONTENTS

Preface	i
Introduction	1
The Reasons for Writing This Work	1
A Theoretical Treatment of a Practical Problem	5
The Reader	5
The Present and Future of Liberation Theology	6
Research on Method in Liberation Theology	10
Aim and Method of the Research	14
Some Limitations	16
Structure	18
Chapter One In Search of the Poor
Introduction	20
1.1 Theological Approaches to the Poor in Liberation Theology	22
1.1.1 Who are the Poor?	22
1.1.1.1 Liberation Theology and the Poor in the Old Testament	23
1.1.1.2 Liberation Theology and the Poor in the New Testament	27
1.1.1.3 The Poor Today	34
1.1.2 The God of the Poor	40
1.1.3 The Poor as Sacrament of God	43
1.1.4 The Church and the Poor	46
1.1.5 The Option for the Poor	50
1.2 Critical Remarks on the Use of the Poor in Liberation Theology	58
1.2.1 The Poor and the Church: A Practical Problem	58
1.2.2 The Poor and the Gospel: A Theological Problem	71
1.3 Summary and Outline of Subsequent Chapters	75
Chapter Two When The Window Closes: The Challenge of Idolatry
Introduction	79
2.1 Idolatry: Its Causes and Effects	81
2.1.1 Idolatry in the Bible from a Liberation Theology Perspective	81
2.1.2 The Economy in the Light of Liberation Theology	86
2.1.2.1 The Economic Roots of Idolatry	88
2.1.2.2 Jung Mo Sung: Restoring Economics to Liberation Theology	95
2.2 Utopias good and bad	101
2.2.1 The utopia of human solidarity in the Bible	102
2.2.2 J.B. Libanio: Utopia and Eschatological Hope	103
2.2.3 Ignacio Ellacuría: The Need to Realise Utopias	107
2.2.4 Utopic Reason and its Critique	110
2.2.5 The inadequacies of liberation theology treatments of utopia	114
2.2.6 Some interim conclusions on liberation theology and utopias	117
2.3 Idolatry and Ideology	118
2.3.1 Ideology in Liberation Theology	119

2.3.2 Ideology from outside liberation theology briefly considered	123
2.3.3 Is Liberation Theology an Ideology?	125
2.4 The God of Life	130
2.4.1 Religion expressing life	132
2.4.2 Living Faith	133
2.4.3 Salvation as life-affirming in the here and now	136
Conclusion	142
Chapter Three Windows Open and Shut: On Icons and Idols
3.1 The Problem	147
3.2 The Iconoclast Controversy	148
3.2.1 Introduction	148
3.2.2 The Pre-History of the Iconoclast Controversy	150
3.2.3 The First Phase of the Iconoclast Controversy	151
3.2.4 Constantine V and the deepening of the Iconoclast controversy	154
3.2.5 The Council of Hiereia	155
3.2.6 The Second Council of Nicaea	158
3.2.6.1 The Definition	159
3.2.6.2 The Canons of the Council	161
3.2.7 Summary	163
3.3 Emmanuel Levinas and The Other	166
3.3.1 Introduction	166
3.3.2 The problem of totality	166
3.3.3 The Face of the Other	170
3.3.4 "Substitution" and "The Third"	172
3.3.5 Levinas and the Poor in History	175
3.3.6 Levinas, Liberation and Salvation	177
3.4 Enrique Dussel: A Liberation Appropriation of Levinas	180
3.4.1 Situating Dussel	180
3.4.2 Relationships of praxis	181
3.4.3 Categories of Otherness	183
3.5 Jean-Luc Marion	187
3.5.1 Naming Idols	188
3.5.2 Idols with Being	190
3.5.3 The Excesses of Idolatry	192
3.5.4 Icons: Minding the Gap	194
3.5.5 The Invisible Icon	196
3.5.6 L'adonné	200
3.5.7 Concluding Reflections on the Contribution of Jean-Luc Marion	201
3.6 Conclusion	203
Chapter Four Clodovis Boff – Keeping The Dialectical Tension
4.1 Introduction	206
4.2 The Theological Method of Clodovis Boff	209

4.2.1 Introduction	209
4.2.2 Teologia e Prática	211
4.2.3 The basic principles of Boff's methodology	212
4.2.3.1 The Socio-Analytic Mediation	213
4.2.3.2 Hermeneutical Mediation	220
4.2.3.3 The Dialectic of Theory and Praxis	227
4.2.4 Some Interim Critical Conclusions	234
4.3 Some Works of Clodovis Boff in the 1980s and 1990s	243
4.3.1 The status of liberation theology and its relation to theology	243
4.3.2 The place of the poor	249
4.4 Clodovis Boff's work in recent years	253
4.4.1 Teoria do Método Teológico	254
4.4.2 Back to base for liberation theology – Boffs in debate	260
4.5 Conclusion	271
Conclusion	274
Can Liberation Theology Leave the Poor as Iconic?	275
The Advantages of Clodovis Boff's Methodology	276
Limits to Clodovis Boff's Methodology	276
The Challenge of Alterity	278
Unanswered Questions	279
Two Journeys	280
Bibliography	283
Summary	314
Samenvatting (Summary in Dutch)	316
Resumo (Summary in Portuguese)	319