

Introduction - Evaluating Democracy Assistance Policies by Jeff Lovitt	5
About the Authors	9

PART I. Democracy Assistance Policies - Trends and Approaches

Re-energising Europe to Champion Democracy The Visegrad Four bring fresh transition experience to the donors' side of the table by Jacek Kucharczyk and Jeff Lovitt	15
Limited Resources, Global Ambitions The Czech Republic's Democracy Assistance Policies and Priorities by Vladimír Bartovic	29
Hungarian Minorities, the Balkans ... and the Far East Hungary's Democracy Assistance Policies and Priorities by Áron Horváth	51
Eastern Promises and Achievements Poland's Democracy Assistance Policies and Priorities by Piotr Kaźmierkiewicz	81
Exporting Democracy (not only Democracy...) Slovakia's Democracy Assistance Policies and Priorities by Grigorij Mesežnikov	115
European Union: Democracy versus Bureaucracy An Assessment of the Reform of the EU's External Assistance Instruments by Věra Řiháčková	151

PART II. Visegrad Four Democracy Assistance Policies in Target Countries

Belarus: Next Generation Democracy by Marian Kowalski	189
Bosnia and Herzegovina: A Closely Watched Democracy by Sanida Kikić	215
Cuba: Forging Alliances Across the Transatlantic Divide by Francesco Guarascio	247
Ukraine: Supporting Elusive Consolidation by Natalia Shapovalova and Olga Shumylo	267