

CONTENTS

	Page
INTRODUCTION	vii
Chapter I.
SOURCES
1. The Hebrew conception of time	1
2. Different meanings of the Hebrew word יום with some foreign parallels	5
a) The Classification of meanings of the Hebrew word יום	5
b) The word יום in some Semitic inscriptions	8
c) Parallels in the cuneiform inscriptions	10
3. Statistics of the phrase יום יהודה	17
4. Other peculiar phrases composed with the word יום	21
Chapter II.
THEORIES AND CRITICISM
1. R. H. Charles	27
2. J. M. P. Smith	29
3. Hermann Gunkel and Hugo Gressmann	32
4. Sigmund Mowinckel and Julian Morgenstern	41
5. The "Myth-and-ritual" school	49
Chapter III.
CONSTRUCTIVE ARGUMENT
1. Sources and content of the conception of the Day of Yahweh	53
2. The original form of the Day of Yahweh	67
3. The age and development of the eschatological doctrine of the Day of Yahweh	80
4. The historical and social causes of the beginning of eschatology	85
5. The ethnological origin of the conception of the Day of Yahweh	93
Chapter IV.
SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS	99
APPENDICES
I. The Classification of the terms used in the descriptions of the Day of Yahweh
II. The Diagram of the development of the doctrine of the Day of Yahweh	106
ABBREVIATIONS	107
BIBLIOGRAPHY	109
INDEX OF BIBLICAL PASSAGES	113
INDEX OF AUTHORS	118