

CONTENTS

- I. The Austro-Hungarian Monarchy Sues for Peace 5
- II. The Habsburg Dynasty Offers Peace to the Peoples of Austria-Hungary . . 13
- III. The Peoples of the Empire Reject the Imperial Offer 23
- IV. The Germinal Seed of the Revolution 28
- V. The 14th Oct. in the Bohemian Lands 36
- VI. Union at Geneva of the Czechoslovak Movements Abroad and at Home for Independence 51
- VII. Wilson's Reply to the Monarchy . . 65
- VIII. The Defeat of the Austro-Hungarian Armies at Vittorio Veneto 73
- IX. The Disintegration of the Austro-Hungarian Empire 85
- X. The Taking Over of the Corn Institute. Andrassy's Note in Prague, October 28th 1918 93

XI. The National Committee and the Governor	101
XII. The National Committee and the Military Headquarters	111
XIII. Vienna and the Coup d'Etat of Prague	121
XIV. The Resignation of Governor Coudenhove	130
XV. The Attempt at a Counter-Revolution	135
XVI. The Coup d'Etat in the Czech lands .	147
XVII. The Declaration of Saint Martin . .	153
XVIII. The Policy of the Germans	168
XIX. German Bohemia and the Sudetes . .	176
XX. Slovakia and the Hungarians	193
XXI. The Birth of the Czechoslovak Republic	214